

Indie Author Book Fair – Vendor Participation Guidelines

To ensure a welcoming, educational, and family-friendly experience for all attendees, the Indie Author Book Fair upholds the following standards for participating authors and vendors.

1. Mission Alignment

All books and materials must align with LiteracyNation's mission to promote:

- Literacy and education
- Family engagement
- Personal and community empowerment
- Cultural enrichment and inclusion

2. Content Standards

We welcome diverse voices and genres, including adult-themed content, as long as it is presented responsibly. The following guidelines apply:

-  Adult-Only Content
 - Vendors with books that contain mature themes (e.g., romance, memoirs with adult experiences, etc.) are welcome.
 - These materials must be clearly marked with an 'Adult Content' table card, which we will provide, to ensure young attendees are guided appropriately.
-  Prohibited Content
 - Contain excessive graphic violence or sexually explicit material
 - Promote horror, occult, or supernatural themes in content specifically aimed at children (e.g., vampires, witches, demonic entities, dark mythological figures)
 - Present ideologies that conflict with our mission to empower through literacy, education, and positive representation

3. Curatorial Rights

As event organizers, we retain the right to make final decisions about vendor participation in order to uphold the integrity, safety, and values of the event and its attendees.
