Tex:

Western Hognose.

Adopted from Wild World May 20, 2025.

King Koomba:

African Sulcata Tortoise.

Adopted from a couple May 4, 2023.

I instantly fell in love with this King when we brought him home. He had some immediate medical issues but in our care since, has not had any. King Koomba is full of personality and sometimes just needs to bulldoze stuff for fun. This guy and my husband have the best bromance going on!
