

MUN @ ASU Delegate Grading Rubric:

- Participation in Committee
  - Raise placards a lot
- Accurate Representation
  - Speeches, interactions, and voting align with country's policy
- Skillful Use of Parliamentary Rules
  - Delegate proposes motions that are relevant to debate
  - Delegate understands
- Participation in Unmoderated Caucus
  - Delegate leads in unmoderated caucus
  - Delegate is sponsor of a paper
- Diplomatic Composure
  - Presenting oneself in a manner becoming of a diplomat
  - Addresses chairs and delegates with proper diplomatic formalities
  - Speaks as professionally as they are able and treats delegates and chairs with respect

/25

5 for each section

Multiply by 2 for 50 total points.

Section	0 Points	1-2 Points	3-4 Points	5 Points
Participation	Delegate does not raise placard and does not participate in moderated caucus	Delegate speaks once or twice and rarely participates in caucuses	Delegate raises their placard to speak often and is invested in caucuses	Delegate constantly is raising their placard and is heavily invested in caucus
Accurate Representation	Delegate is completely off their country's policy and operates in a manner no representative from their country would	Delegate is sometimes accurate in their portrayal of their country's ideals in debate and writing	Delegate is mostly accurate in their portrayal of their country's ideals in debate and in writing	Delegate accurately represents their country's ideals in both debate and in writing but not the the point of being overly offensive
Use of Parliamentary Rules	Delegate did not follow standard rules of procedure, did not participate, or was not present during some or all committee sessions.	P-rules were used, although may have been applied incorrectly. Delegate showed little participation or enthusiasm but was present in committee during all sessions.	P-rules were utilized correctly; delegate usually participated in committee to drive debate.	P-rules were utilized correctly to debate and strategically persuade other nations in committee. Delegate showed a desire to participate by consistently raising their placard. P-27 and P-25 rules were consistently and enthusiastically used to participate in debate.
Participation in Unmod	Delegate does not participate in unmod	Delegate shows interest in unmod but participation is minimal	Delegate participates regularly in unmod	Delegate leads a bloc and is influential during umods
Diplomatic Composure	Delegate is disrespectful during committee and is belligerent to both chairs and fellow delegates (note if a delegate does not participate they automatically receive a 0 in this category as well)	Delegate regularly violates diplomatic rules but is generally respectful	Delegate mostly follows diplomatic rules and is respectful to chairs and other delegates	Delegate is respectful to chairs and other delegates and is as professional as they can be within committee