

Opening our church for Sunday Liturgies is the first, measured step in restoring the more normal practice of our faith and will be welcomed by so many, who have waited with great patience since March, when our churches were closed, as part of the fight against this pandemic.

I thank everyone for that patience. It is important that every care is taken to ensure that the guidance given for opening our church is fully observed, not least by those attending liturgy. Our preparations must be thorough, because the protection of the health of our society, especially those most vulnerable, is a proper cause for caution and care.

Until further notice our Services will be held each Sunday at 9.00 am.
