

DIGITAL SUBMISSION

NOTE: A cover letter should be brief, and follow any guidelines set by the specific publication. Essentials: Include your name, the title of your submission, and indicate whether or not you are simultaneously submitting to other journals. You can also include brief biographical info and a mention of previous places where you work has been published.

Dear Editor,

Please consider the attached essay “On the Diseases of the Soul,” for your next issue of Ninth Letter. This is a simultaneous submission. I am a Roman philosopher and my work has appeared in Empire Review, The Roman Times, and Philosophy Quarterly. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Lucius Seneca

PAPER SUBMISSION

NOTE: For a paper submission, also include the date, and let the editor know it's okay to recycle your submission when they finish reviewing it (no need for a self-addressed, stamped envelope)
