Who I am SUMMARY

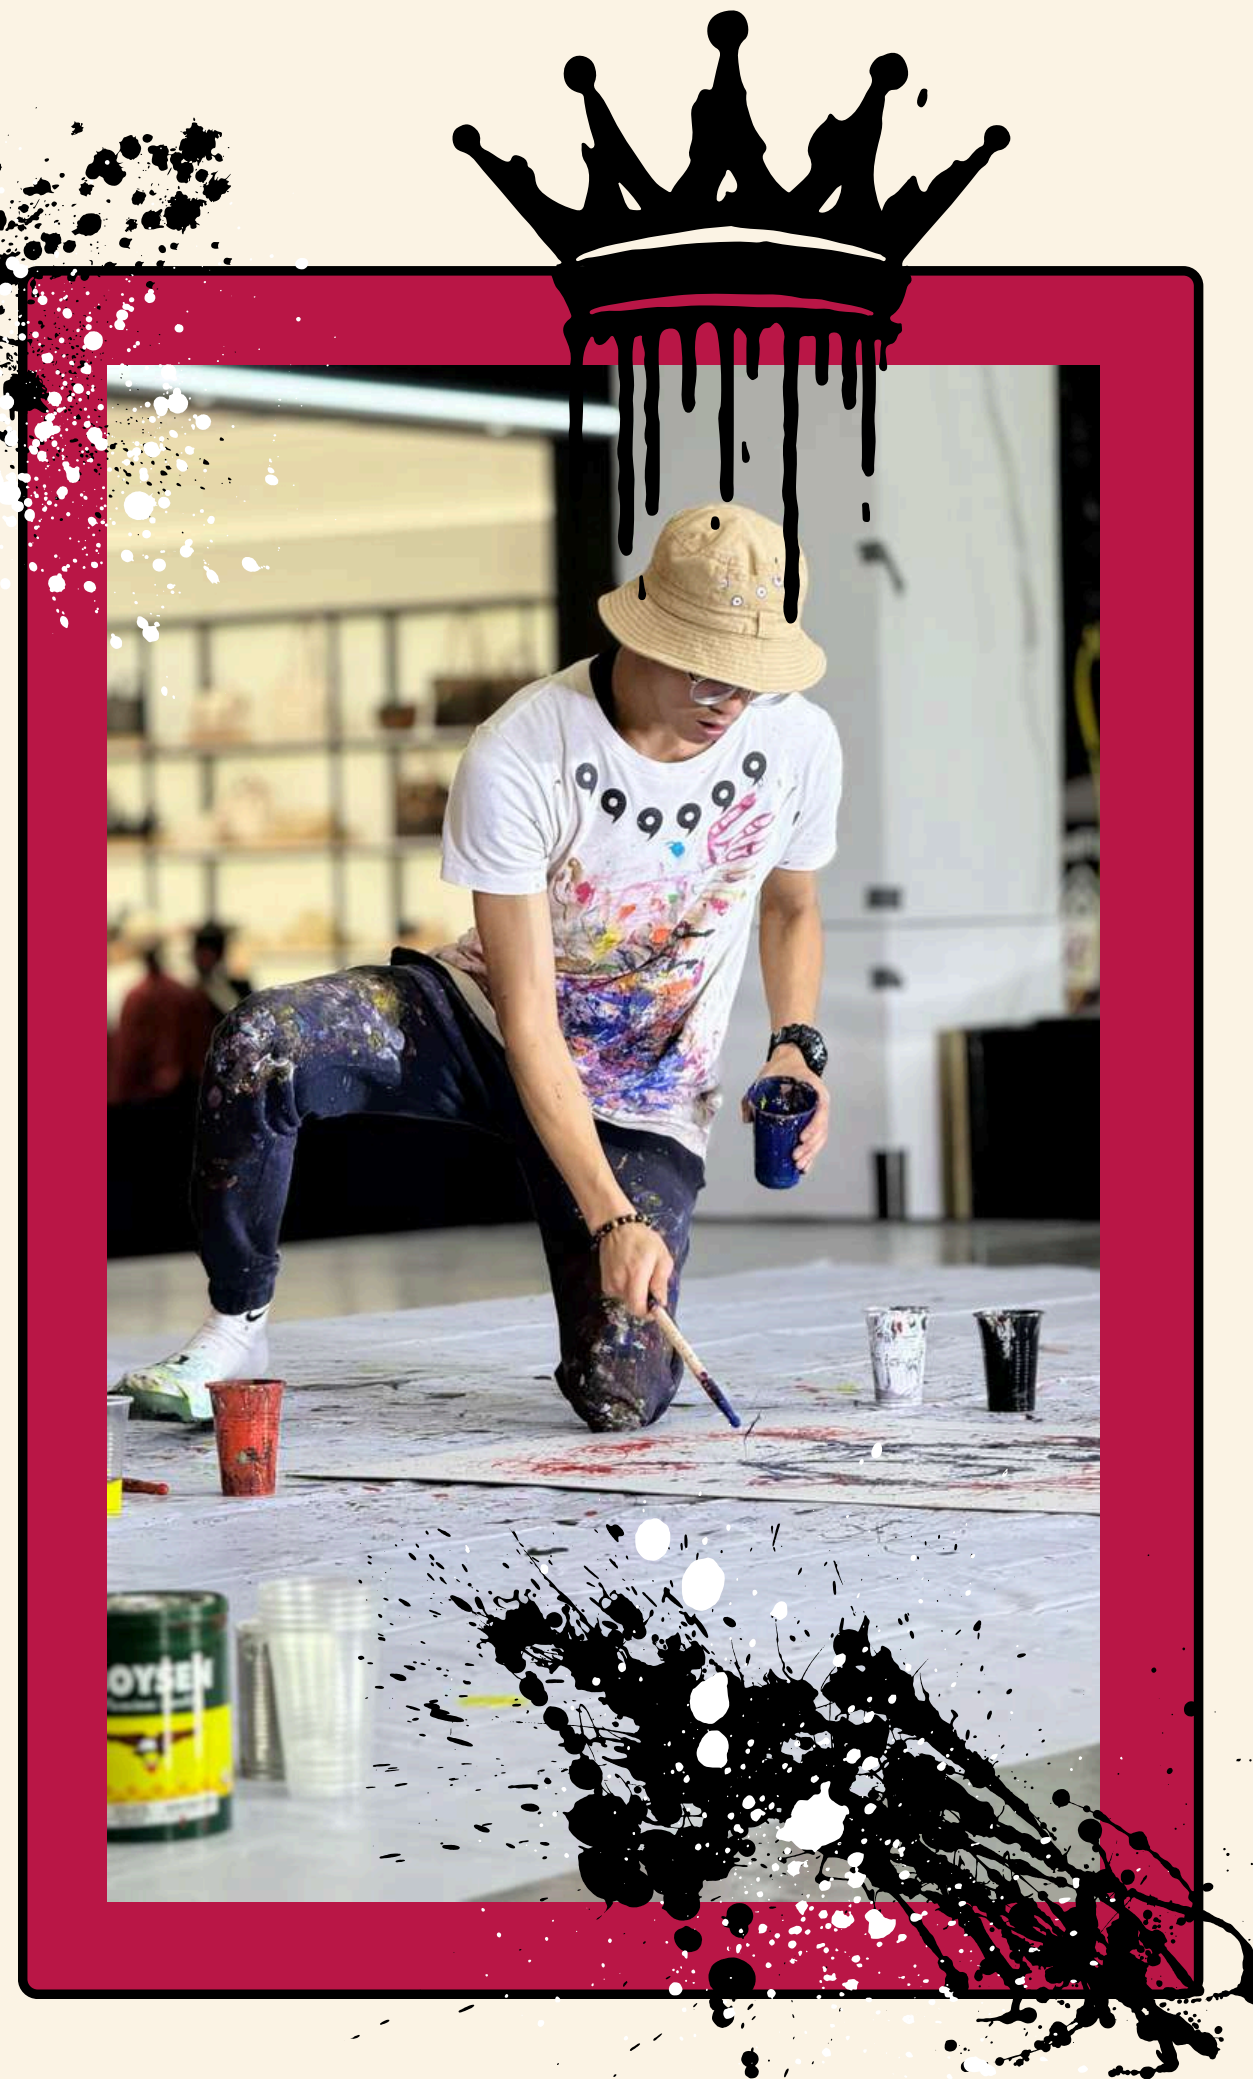

ABOUT ME

introduce KHAITAMA

Inter-disciplinary artist Khairul Anwar Bin Fazlur Rahman aka 'Khaitama D. Sun' works with percussion and visual arts to bring rhythm to life – coined 'Playnting'.

Using drumsticks as my creative brush, I have performed and showcased my work in Berlin, Bangkok, Olongapo and Singapore. Since 2016, I have experience in working with youths-at-risk, people with special needs, cultural and inter-faith communities.

I am working towards spearheading an art movement by devising participatory events as artist and facilitator to inspire and empower people via rhythms of self, sound and colour for unity.

*I dream of world peace.
I feel art is the key.*

Playnting is rooted in the philosophy of interpreting rhythm visually. I specialise in providing creative services and tailored solutions to my clients across diverse industries and backgrounds. My pioneering 'Playnting' technique, using drumsticks as brushes, allows me to challenge conventional notions surrounding art and self-expression, aiming to break down barriers and encourage creativity.

INSPIRATION

Visually and conceptually inspired by Van Gogh, Claude Monet and Jackson Pollock, it was Ushio Shinohara's boxing paintings which influenced me to express myself through my signature drumming paintings. The fusion of music and visual arts in my work allows for a seamless expression of emotions—through the dynamic and nuanced movements of the drumsticks.
