ABOUT ME

In 2016, I invented my own art technique called 'Playnting'.

As a drummer myself, I can truly attest that we are constantly regarded as being in a world of our own when consumed by emotions while performing a song.

I wanted to visualise the raw energy of a drummer and how their emotions are transferred via the drumsticks and onto the drums.

The union of music and visual arts (in this case drumming and painting) allows anyone to seamlessly express emotions through the fluid, yet aggressive, motions of the drumsticks.

"Playnting captures the impression of subconscious reality. Every stroke captures every fleeting thought."

ABOUT US

PHILOSOPHY

The act of playnting is a model of life itself.

You control the movement but the splatters are dictated by the Universe.
Similar to Life, you roll the DICES, Life throws at you results.

Playnting is a dance with the Universal forces at play.
You instil trust in your partner, that which is the Universe, and the Universe reciprocates beautifully in full.

VISION

To provide a platform, where through Playnting, artists from all disciplines can congregate, synthesise and innovate holistic experiences in order to educate, cultivate and entertain everyone.

MISSION

To start a creative movement where Playnting builds a community which embodies inclusivity and diversity through artistic manifestations in order to bring about love, empathy and peace for all.

KHAITAMA

For my oeuvre strictly related through use of Playnting, I currently have 3 categories. Starting with the HUMAN CONDITION ranging from 2016-2017, I then ventured into HEROES & VILLAINS from 2018-Present and finally all things MISCELLANEOUS which spans across all time.

HUMAN CONDITION

Inspired by personal accounts from Middle-Eastern friends during my 7-year stay in Qatar along with news reports and photographs, I decided to create a series to portray the plight and victimisation of innocents in times of war and tragedy.

HEROES & VILLAINS

Ever since I was a youngling, so many fictional characters, be it Marvel or DC, have inspired me. Through the creation of countless heroes and villains, they have always given me hope as a child. Even now. Hence my love of creating fan tribute artworks and appropriating their characters to convey my very own personal messages.

MY VERY FIRST MARVEL-INSPIRED ARTWORK

APRIL 10 2015

NOT PLAYNTING BUT THIS STARTED IT OFF FOR ALL CURRENT AND FUTURE MARVEL-INSPIRED ARTWORKS.

It all started here.

The Iron Fist is a character I relate to. I made this piece after a fit of rage where I punched a wall yet I felt no pain. Danny Rand too is like this as he wields the Iron Fist. As do I. Believe it so.

I'M SPOODEEYMAN! WITH THE POWER OF TOON FORCE!

No. It started long before.

CIVIL WAR

183CM X 122CM

MY SUPERPOWER IS 'PLAYNTING'!

DESCRIPTION

Diptych. Used recycled computer parts to build Iron Man's armour. Used drumsticks to 'Playnt' the splatters. To visualise their aura. A duality in contest. Yin and Yang. Each right and wrong in their own way. Who do you choose?

I AM
IRON MAN?

IRON MAN

I dismantled my old laptops for parts which I then assembled together; akin to how Tony Stark did for the Mark 1.

I PAINT WITH DRUMSTICKS!

YEAH ME TOO!

WOLVERINE - THE PAST & THE PRESENT

76CM X 102CM

DESCRIPTION

Encircling the main subject (Wolverine) are iconic Marvel comic book issues featuring Wolverine which go in chronological order starting from the top left running clockwise. Real metal blades were used to portray his adamantium blades which can be seen glistening in the golden sunlight in the last slide.

COMING

BUB!

LOGAN

DESCRIPTION

To portray a man battered and bruised for far too long:

Real metal blades were used.
Official Marvel Savage Wolverine comic book panels.

"NATURE MADE ME A FREAK.
MAN MADE ME A WEAPON.
AND GOD MADE ME LAST TOO LONG."

WORDS TO LIVE BY

62CM X 41.5CM

DESCRIPTION

'Playnted' the entire background with drumsticks to visualise Spider-Man as an abstract form. Coupled with the figures, quote and webs results in a final work which screams Spider-Man.

He is what it is and it is what He is.

MISCELLANEOUS

I am an artist who isn't limited to a single genre. I strive to perpetually push my horizons and Playnting technique. To visualise the abstract and concrete.

I can confidently say that after 6 years of honing my craft, I can depict anything and everything with Playnting!

Hence here is a collection of my various finished experimentations.

www.playnting.art

ABSTRACTION

Playnting in its purest form is abstract as that is the visualisation of all things raw, primal and visceral. Of the Self. Of the Universe.

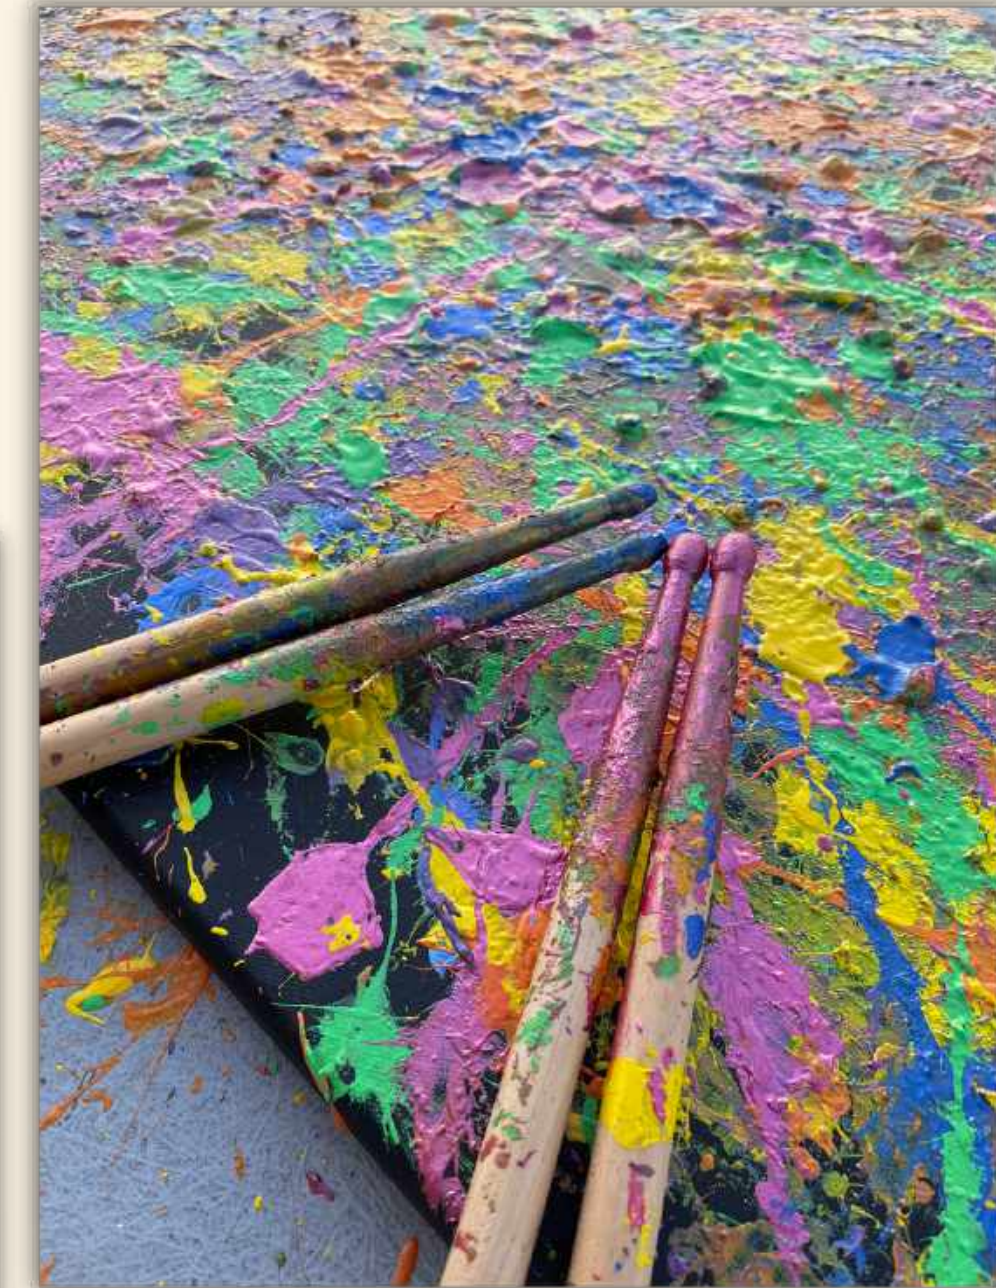

As Above So Below.

As Within So Without.

As the Universe So the Soul.

Visualising the harmonious yet passionate union of the divine masculine and feminine.
Careful selection of 6 colours which complement each other is symbolic of the relationship between two souls where the colours make each other appear brighter, just as each soul pushes the other to grow.

“When they are polar opposites,
a great attraction,
arises between them,
And when they come close,
When they meet in intimacy,
They bring two different worlds,
Two different dimensions,
Two different richness,
And the meeting is a tremendous blessing,
A benediction”

“Khanne”
60.5cm x 91cm
2021
Mixed Media on canvas

The concept of duality is one which intrigues me.
I understand the necessity for both light and dark for one cannot exist without the other. The duality exists in all. In the Universe and the Self.
Even within humans. To deny one is to deny a part of yourself.
To accept both is to accept all of yourself.

FASHION

I believe every individual is a living, breathing canvas - with agency to create their own outfits through 'Playnting'. With focus on breathing new life into old clothes with a splash of colour.

"To Reuse creatively and Recycle artistically."

In doing so I decided to use clothing as a medium starting with my own clothes which I then expanded to the clothes of others. This solution allowed me to continue my art practice despite financial struggles where I could not afford to purchase canvases; as well as open the doors for me to enter fashion.
