G. STANDING ORDERS

The chairman shall:

- i. Make sure a quorum is always present throughout a meeting.
- ii. Conduct the meeting in accordance with the rules.
- iii. Ensure that no member speaks for an undue length of time or unnecessarily repeats points that have already been put before the meeting.
- iv. Terminate any discussion which is not, at that time, relevant to the business before the meeting.

The Chairman’s ruling on all points of order and procedure shall be final unless a motion is moved, seconded, and carried “That the Chairman’s ruling is disagreed with”

The mover may speak briefly in support of his or her motion and the Chairman explains why the ruling was given. The Chairman takes the vote.

All members shall raise their hand to indicate they wish to address the chair.

There shall be no limit on the number of speakers for or against a motion, providing the debate is still active, but if there is no speaker in opposition to the previous two (2) speakers, the debate shall be closed. The mover of the motion shall have the right of reply before the vote is taken.

Any member may move without the debate that the question “now be put” and if the motion is seconded and carried by a majority vote, the motion or amendment before the meeting shall be put at once.

Any mover may move that the meeting “now proceed to the next business”. This requires a seconder and shall be voted upon without discussion. If carried the original motion shall not be revived at the same meeting. If lost, the original motion shall be put without further discussion except that the mover shall have the right of reply.

Any member may put that the motion before the Chair be deferred.

A motion or amendment which is not passed at a meeting may not be brought forward at the same meeting, however, may be brought forward at a subsequent meeting.

Upon evidence of a mistake in facts that have been presented to the meeting or upon receipt for further information, a motion may be rescinded at the same meeting, provided that all members who voted on the motion are present and agree to the rescission. A resolution may be rescinded on notice of motion at a subsequent meeting.

An amendment which is a direct negative of the motion shall not be allowed.

An amendment moved and seconded is voted upon before the motion. The mover of the original motion may exercise their right of reply before the amendment is voted upon. No second or subsequent amendment shall be received until the first amendment has been voted upon. An amendment, which is carried becomes the motion and is open to further amendment.

The mover and seconder of the motion under discussion are not entitled to move or second amendments to it. If the mover is in agreement with any proposed amendment, he or she can accept it and may seek leave to alter the motion accordingly.

No motion or amendment may be withdrawn without the consent of the mover or seconder and the consent of the meeting. Voting on motions before the Chair be by show of hands except that a secret ballot shall be taken if any member requests it.

The voting on any motion shall be recorded at the request of any member.

Voting for all positions shall be by secret ballot on the ballot paper printed and distributed by the Club and shall be decided in order.

- For positions to which only one (1) person is to be elected, Members shall vote for one (1) candidate only. The candidate with the highest number of votes shall be declared elected.

H. ALTERATIONS TO BY-LAWS

These By-Laws and Standing Orders of the Club may be altered by special resolution passed by at least three-quarters (3/4) of the members present and voting at an Annual General Meeting or Special Executive Committee Meeting of the Club in which not less than twenty-one (21) days written notice specifying the resolution/s to be proposed has been given.
