Biography

Kevin is a native of Oakland, California. He is a U.S. Air Force veteran with over 20 years of active duty service. An accomplished speaker with a “tell it like it is” mentality, he shoots from the hip when discussing personal development and improvement. While serving in the Air Force, he developed a passion for assisting people with overcoming the obstacles they face, no matter how minor or major they may be.

One of Kevin’s philosophies is, “Improvement isn’t always easy, due to what may be prompting the need to improve. It may mean making a decision, or taking an action you don’t like, or even want to do, but unless you do it, the situation isn’t going to change.”

A devoted husband, father, and avid sports fan, Kevin is available for group discussions, conferences, presentations, and training sessions, on a variety of topics.
