President's Message, Sherry Werum

Welcome to January Jumpstart. On January 8th NCQC will be hosting two hours of inspiration and ideas to keep your quilt guild growing and vibrant. Enthusiasm is contagious and NCQC strives to keep interest and growth a top priority for the health of every quilt guild. A number of years ago I gave a quilt lecture at the Mt Tamalpais quilt guild. Later that week I received a thank you from their program chair. "You brought new interest and enthusiasm to our guild. Thank you for making such a difference."

Even one inspirational speaker can give a spark to your guild. Come to our January event ready to be filled with new ideas. You will also have an opportunity to share projects and programs that you have successfully implemented in your guild. See you there!

Newsletter Editor, Roberta Burke

Send your quilt show date and photos for our website. It is renewal time, so check on that while you refresh your guild's contact information. Bring your form and check to renew at the door.

Remind your guild members to enter for exhibition in the NCQC sponsored, New Quilts of Northern California in the center of the Pacific International Quilt Festival.

For you who use the last week of the year to schedule fresh starts: Picture the joy ahead.
