

Give your remote team a skills boost!

Up-skill and re-charge your WFH customer service, sales and support staff

Managing or working in a remote team can be challenging

Brilliant Customer Service can help your remote team members to:

- Feel more engaged and involved
- Benefit from increased interaction with their colleagues
- Keep their business skills fresh and up-to-date

How does it work?

We bring your team together online once a week for six weeks. Each session includes coaching, training input and skills practice. Plus:

- Access to engaging eLearning
- Choice of training modules
- Daily learning 'nudges'
