INSIDE SCOOP CELEBRATES PRODUCER

Inside Scoop recently honored our producer, Ben Zuhl, with a special behind-the-scenes episode celebrating the work that brings the show to life. Viewers got a closer look at the planning, guest preparation, production, and teamwork required to create each episode. It was a meaningful tribute to Ben's steady leadership, creative eye, and commitment to making Inside Scoop a strong platform for community-centered conversations.

DPVA BLUE COMMONWEALTH GALA

I had the pleasure of attending the Democratic Party of Virginia's Blue Commonwealth Gala, an inspiring evening filled with purpose and energy. I enjoyed hearing from leaders such as Governor Abigail Spanberger, AG Jay Jones, and Speaker Don Scott. Senator Mark Warner's speech was especially powerful, reminding us that preserving democracy requires vigilance, courage, and continued accountability for the current administration.

CD-8 CANDIDATE FORUM

I thoroughly enjoyed co-moderating the Congressional District 8 candidate forum featuring Congressman Don Beyer, Michael Duffin, Adam Dunigan, and Mo Seifeldin. Each candidate answered questions from the audience and offered thoughtful responses that reflected their priorities, leadership style, and vision for Virginia's 8th Congressional District. It was a valuable opportunity for voters to hear directly from those seeking to represent them.
