

Biosimilars Speaker E-Training for Hemato-Oncologists and Oncologists in Emerging Markets

We are delighted to invite you to attend the upcoming Biosimilars Speaker E-Training for Hemato-Oncologists and Oncologists in Emerging Markets (ETHOS) 2-part training program! This E-Training event is being led by Dr Paul Cornes, a renowned Consultant Clinical Oncologist with a strong expertise in biosimilars around the world, and specialist speaker trainer agency, LionsDen. LionsDen has an international reputation for their communications and media training. The program will involve some additional work after Meeting 1 in the form of watching a short training video and preparing a 5-minute presentation to use in practice during Meeting 2.
