AN ODE TO

Romanticism

SOFTLY BRIGHT AND RADIANT

Oh, romanticism, thou art divine...

...In thy presence, all is fine

Elysian dreams of love and grace,

Guiding us to a higher place,

*Where beauty reigns and hearts
entwine,*

In a world of love that is divine.

Cassandra Faria is an emerging stylist based in Melbourne, who specialises in Creative Direction and Photography at Whitehouse Institute of Design, Australia.

Inspired by historical artistic movements and Classic Literature, she uses photography and digital renders integrated with contemporary design for content creation and product photography. Her connection with nature and appreciation for flora encapsulates an ethereal and modern aesthetic, where her passion for exploring realism through imagery is articulated through her designs.

Cassandra Faria hopes to work as a Photographer and eventually an Editorial Editor for contemporary and upcoming labels, particularly for the beauty and fashion industry.
