

There was a sound like a blowing of a violent wind...
...what seemed to be tongues of fire
that separated and came to rest on each one of them.
All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit.

MOBILE

How many believers were baptised that day?

HEADBAND

TO MAKE THE MOBILE

The help of an adult may be needed when cutting and assembling the mobile

Print out all the pages of the mobile onto card.
(160 + gsm copy card is suitable)

Colour in the 'Pentecost Flame' main piece and the three smaller flame pieces then cut them all out.

Fold the main piece back along the dotted line then glue the front to the back.

Punch out the holes at the top and bottom where marked

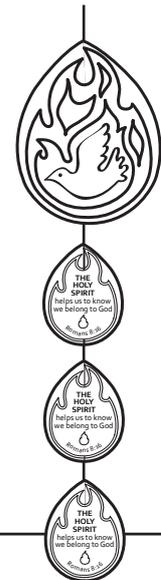

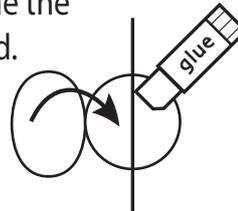

Cut one length of thread approx. 35cm / 14 inches long and tie onto the bottom hole of the main piece

Fold each of three flame pieces in half and glue the front to the back around each length of thread.

Tie a length of thread to the top to hang up.

OTHER WAYS TO USE THIS ACTIVITY

You can use this artwork to make a Pentecost Flame headband.
Print out the 'HEADBAND' page. Colour in. Cut out the larger flame and the six smaller single sided flames then glue onto a strip of card approx. 6cm/ 2.5 inches wide and as long as needed to go around the head.

Fold round and glue to make a headband

FOR GROUPS

If limited time, pre-make the Pentecost Flame mobiles/headbands and use as a colouring in activity.

Use the Colouring page for those who finish before the others or for younger children.
