

Songdog - Janie Jones

Most cover versions of Clash songs are pretty faithful to the original but Songdog have reworked 1977's 'Janie Jones' in to a delicate and fractured acoustic track which brings out the inner beauty of the song. Using just a lead vocal with harmonising backing vocals, acoustic guitar track, and occasional snatches of piano and atmospheric synths, this is a beautiful rendition which I am sure Joe Strummer and the boys would be proud of.

Return to Single Reviews

Copyright Scott Brown, 2005

