If you are already a Full member of OCGC and refer one or more New Members in 2023, you can qualify for significant discounts on your Club dues.

Here's how it works:

The New Member pays a Joining Fee of $300.00 and selects the category of membership which they qualify for in 2023. The New Member also fills out a Membership Application and a promotional form, which commits them to pay 2023 dues in installments beginning on January 1, 2023. The New Member gets full playing privileges for the remainder of the 2022 golf season.

The New Member will receive a discount on those installments based upon the category of membership they qualify for. For example, a Single member under 35 years old would get a discount of $15.00 per month from the regular price of $62.00 per month, lowering their installment to $47.00 per month.

The OCGC Member who made that referral would also receive a discount of $15.00 per month off their dues, so long as the New Member is current in their installment payments. If the New Member opted to pay their discounted annual dues in full rather than installments, then both the New Member and the referring Member would receive full discounts. In the example above, both would receive discounts totaling $180.00 ($15 x 12).

If the referring Member prefers, they can transfer their monthly discount to the New Member to further reduce the monthly installment amount. In the example of the New Member who qualifies for the Single under 35 category, this would reduce the monthly installment from $47.00 down to just $32.00. So, if paid in a lump sum, the New Member would pay $384.00 ($32 x 12) in annual dues for 2023.

The New Member must commit to remain a member for at least 24 months and will continue to receive dues discounts for that period so long as they are current in their payments. The member assessment is waived for one (1) year. At the conclusion of 24 months, the New Member promotion discounts are ended.
