Thank you for your interest in having Christian Overman come to your school for teacher training!

Due to inner ear problems exacerbated by flight, Dr. Overman is only able to do live workshops for schools that are within a 3-4 hour driving distance of Seattle, Washington.

For your live training event, Worldview Matters® will provide:

1. Instruction by Dr. Christian Overman for 6 hours (1-day, 1 CEU) or for 12 hours (2-days, 2-CEUs)
2. 1 full-color, 48-page Participant Guide for each attendee
3. 2 books (Assumptions That Affect Our Lives, and The Lost Purpose for Learning), for follow-up staff discussion
4. Practical teaching tools (see the list at the end of this document)

The Hosting Organization is to provide:

1. A meeting room that may be darkened (for viewing videos), with participants are seated at tables (if possible)
2. A large screen, lapel mic, boom mic (for boosting the sound of video clips)
3. Copies of handouts for all participants (masters are provided by Dr. Overman)

Materials Fee:

$25 per participant (a $32 value if purchased separately)

Speaking Fee:

$750 for 1 day, or $1,500 for 2 days

Travel Expenses:

Hotel accommodations (only if more than a 90-minute drive from Seattle)

Refund policy: If Worldview Matters must cancel the event due to serious unforeseen reasons (such as illness of speaker), the confirmation fee of $150 will be fully refunded. If the Hosting Organization cancels the event, the confirmation fee will not be refunded.

Please fill out the Confirmation Form on the next page.

Dr. Christian Overman, author/presenter

Dr. Christian Overman is the Founding Director of Worldview Matters, www.biblicalworldview.com, an organization dedicated to helping followers of Christ to recover from secularized thought, and to make relevant and intentional connections between the biblical worldview and their daily lives.

Dr. Overman has taught from elementary through college levels. For 14 years, he served as principal of a Christian school. He is an adjunct faculty member of Seattle Pacific University (from which he holds a Masters of Education degree), and a graduate of Bakke Graduate University (from which he holds a Doctor of Ministry degree). Dr. Overman is also a commissioned Centurion, studying under Chuck Colson.

Since founding Worldview Matters in the year 2000, Dr. Overman has taught courses in biblical worldview contextualization and theology of work to audiences throughout the United States, as well as Central America, South America, Europe, Africa and Asia.

He is the author of Assumptions That Affect Our Lives, The Lost Purpose for Learning, and God's Pleasure At Work.

Christian Overman and his wife, Kathy, have been married since 1972. They have four adult children and twelve grandchildren. They reside in Bellevue, Washington, near Seattle.

TOPICS ADDRESSED IN “GOD’S PLEASURE AT WORK”

Not all of the following topics or teaching tools are addressed in the 1-day workshop, but this list reflects the content of the full 2-day format:

1. What is a “biblical worldview” and why does it really matter?
2. What makes Christian education Christian?
3. How does the “First Commission” of Gen. 1:26-28 bring meaning to Christian education?
4. What is the basic problem with “SSD,” [the “Sacred-Secular Divide”] and how can Christian education help solve the problem of “dualism?”
5. How can Christian education give the next generation a positive view of work?
6. How can students integrate their faith with their current work of solving math problems, participating in sports, doing science experiments, and washing the dishes at home?
7. How can students keep from being “taken captive by vain philosophy?”
8. How has “postmodernism” affected the way students think today, and why is this important to know?
9. How can we help students to respond “rightly” when things go “wrongly?”
10. Can hairdressing be the work of God, too?
11. What in the world is the Kingdom of God, and how does the Kingdom relate to education?
12. And more!

Teaching tools presented in the 2-day workshop (click links below for samples). At least 3 teaching tools will be presented at each day of the full 2-day workshop:

1. The Classroom Conversation Starter
2. The Activities Contextualizer
3. The Truth & Baloney Detector
4. The DADI Plan
5. The Biblical Worldview Finder
6. The Awesome Activator
