PRESENTS

Snowflakes

an evening of poetry and stories in the spirit of the season

Snowflakes is a reader's theatre presentation of poetry and stories from immortal authors and poets, including Hans Christian Andersen, O. Henry, Thomas Hardy, Robert Frost, Mark Doty, Sara Teasdale, Shakespeare, Emma Lazarus and, of course, Clement C. Moore all interspersed with Nathaniel Hawthorne's Snowflakes from Twice Told Tales.

Enjoy a warm evening in front of the Library's fireplace with wine, cider, and holiday treats while the stories and poems stir imagination and memories with the joy of the wintry season outside.
