Notes from Mrs. Marj

Welcome to today's performance of "A Little Party!" As the title suggests, we come together to celebrate the talent and hard work of the dancers on stage today. This celebration wouldn't be possible without our amazingly talented staff.

Thank you to our instructors who gave of themselves and their talents each week- Danita, Chelsea, Corina, Courtney, Dave, Jenn, Jessica D, Jessica S, Kyle, Kathy, Madison, Suzanne, Maya, Olivia and Danica. We celebrate you!

Thank you to our office staff; for your patient care of all things dance- Hana, Renee, and Chrissie.

Thank you to our student assistants for keeping the "party going" week after week. You guys are awesome.

To the guest instructors that in our absence, kept the studio running smoothly; Hannah, Coco, Yaya, Grace, Megan, Joely, Liv, Dalila, Anna, Ava, Erinn and anyone I may have missed that has stepped in to cover for even an hour. Thank you.

To the Comp Team Class of '25; Jackie, Maya, Olivia and Danica, the day has come, and it came faster than any of us wanted. Jackie, the first day I met you there was no doubt, dance brought you joy. Each time you took to the stage, it was/is simply breathtaking. Maya, the world is your oyster. You are smart, talented and beautiful both inside and out. I can't wait to see what's next for you. Olivia, you are ready to take on the world and I know you won't settle for less than what you deserve. I hope you always keep that drive and always make room for dance in your life. Dani, my musical theater diva! I'm so happy you are pursuing dance as a career. I feel that dance keeps the balance in your life. You are creative and it's time to bring those big ideas to life! To all the seniors, text, call, and visit often. CMC will always be your home, I love you.

To my beautiful daughters, Chelsea, Courtney and Madison- I'm in awe of how you have transitioned to "working" mommies with such ease and grace. You are my greatest achievement in life, and I love you.

Mateo, you have successfully taken on the big bro/cousin role, Dean and Wren already love you and I appreciate your help. Gia, I'm so proud of you taking the stage at your 1st competition this year! You're a rock star. Deanie and Wren, thanks for putting up with Nana each day and joining the Nana Bus! I love you all so much!

Dave, another great year, another new grandbaby and the last Taylor daughter married; does this mean we can retire? Nah, we wouldn't know what to do with a day off! Thanks for keeping things exciting. I love you.

Cheers to another year and enjoy the show!

Dear CMC and Family,

As I sit down to write this letter, it's hard to believe that my time as a dancer here is coming to an end. The countless hours spent in the studio, the sweat, the sore muscles, the laughter, the tears, and the joy- it all feels like a blur of beautiful moments that have shaped who I am today.

Walking into the studio for the first time all those years ago, I never imagined how much this place would become a second home. At first, it was just about learning steps and keeping up in class. But somewhere along the way, it became so much more. The studio became a place where I learned discipline, perseverance, self-expression, and the power of community. I found confidence in myself that I didn't know existed, and I discovered how much passion can drive you when you truly love something.

To my teachers; thank you doesn't feel like enough. Your guidance, patience, and belief in me have made all the difference. You pushed me when I wanted to give up, corrected me when I needed to grow, and celebrated every little victory with me. You saw potential even when I doubted myself; and that belief helped me rise time and time again. I will carry the lessons you taught me far beyond the studio walls.

To my teammates; what a journey we've had together. You have all been my biggest cheerleader, my support system, and my second family. From backstage talks to laughter during class, you've made the long days more bearable and the special moments unforgettable. We've shared so many firsts; first solos, first competitions, first group wins and now we share one more- the bittersweet goodbye. But know that I'll always be rooting for you, wherever life takes you.

To the younger dancers who are just beginning their journey: cherish every single moment. Soak in every correction, take every opportunity to grow, and never stop believing in yourself. Some days will be tough. You'll fall out of turns, forget choreography, or feel like you're not improving. But those are the days that build you. Keep showing up. Stay hungry to learn and never be afraid to shine. You are capable of so much more than you realize.

Dance is more than movement, it's storytelling, emotion, and connection. And in a world that is always changing, dance remains constant. I hope you find as much love and healing in it as I have. Trust the process, and don't rush it. Progress doesn't always come quickly, but it always comes.

To my family, thank you for the rides, the costumes, the support, and the endless encouragement. None of this would have been possible without your love and belief in my dreams. I'm so thankful to have you all in my life. You have shaped me to be who I am today, thank you.

As I take my final bow here, I leave with a full heart. This chapter of my life has been one of the most meaningful, and though I'm moving on, a part of me will always be spinning across this studio floor, feeling the music, and remembering what it means to be a dancer here. I'm not sure what the future holds, but I know I'll always carry the lessons, memories, and spirit of this studio with me. No matter where I go, I will always be proud to say I was part of this incredible dance family.

So, this isn't goodbye, it's a thank you. Thank you for being my home, my training ground, my sanctuary. Thank you for shaping me into the person and dancer I am today. I'll miss the music, the mirrors, and the magic of this place more than words can express. But most of all, I'll miss the people who made it so special.

With all my love and deepest gratitude,
Jackie Anderson

My darling Jackie,

I have dreaded and wished for this time to come. This strong, beautiful, talented, courageous, independent, caring, funny, and honest woman before us gives me hope for the future. You know what you want, and you have worked hard for it. You never gave up, pushed harder when you were told no and practiced until they finally said yes. You make me and the rest of the family proud to call you ours. This is your time to live big, dream bigger, and enjoy every moment that life offers you. Attending college to pursue your passion is not something most people get to achieve. So, take advantage of any opportunities that arise (even if they're out of your comfort zone) as you can accomplish anything you put your mind to! Please remember to breathe, be patient with yourself, and if you begin to doubt yourself- DON'T! Your love for your craft is inspiring to younger girls who call you the "Beyoncé of Ballet," so continue to give it all you've got! I'll be there in the wings, either in person or in spirit, no matter where you are or what stage you're on. Know that I'm your biggest fan.

Love,
Mom 5

Maya Howard

I have been dancing for as long as I can remember, since I was just two years old. At eight, I joined the CMC competition team, and that was the moment everything changed. CMC became more than just a place where I learned choreography or practiced routines; it became the foundation of who I am. Over the years, I've danced through countless rehearsals, early mornings, late nights, sore muscles, and unforgettable performances. But more than anything, I've grown up here, on these floors, in this studio, with this team. Every dance, every class, every challenge has helped shape me into the person I am today, and I'm so proud to have shared this journey with such an incredible dance family.

As I get ready to take my final bow at CMC, I'm also preparing to begin a brand-new chapter. This fall, I'll be attending Binghamton University, where I'll be studying art and design. My dream is to become an art teacher, so I can inspire students the way my own teachers have inspired me. Art has always given me a sense of freedom and self-expression, just like dance, and I can't wait to share that passion with others. Though I'm leaving CMC, I'm not ready to say goodbye to dancing. I hope to continue doing what I love by joining Binghamton's dance team. Even though everything is about to change, I know dance will always be a part of who I am.

As I reflect on this moment, I want to say thank you from the bottom of my heart. To everyone at CMC, thank you for being part of my story. Ms. Corina, thank you for always being there with big sisterly advice and for guiding me not just as a dancer, but as a person. Ms. Jess, thank you for helping me find my voice through movement and discover my unique style in my lyrical solos. Mr. Kyle, thank you for making my senior year memorable, and challenging me in my solo rehearsals. Ms. Chelsea, thank you for never letting me settle for less and for pushing me to put in the work even when it was hard. Ms. Maddy, thank you for understanding me both on and off the dance floor, and for creating a space where I felt seen and understood. Ms. Courtney, thank you for helping me come out of my shell and for believing in me that first year you put me in hip hop. It changed everything. Mrs. Marj, thank you for being the person I could always come to, for building this studio into a second home, and for creating a community that has meant the world to me.

These past years wouldn't have been the same without my fellow 2025 seniors. Jackie, thank you for always lightening the mood and bringing the laughter we didn't even know we needed. Danica, thank you for always dancing with your whole heart. I've loved sharing the stage with you all these years. Olivia, thank you for standing by my side through everything. Being your duo partner has been one of the greatest joys of my dance journey, but more than that, I'm grateful for the friendship we've built along the way. Dancing with you for the last sixteen years is something I'll cherish forever.

Most of all, thank you to my parents. Thank you for every ride to and from the studio, every costume, every word of encouragement, every moment spent cheering me on. Your love and support have meant everything to me, and I'm so grateful for the countless hours and endless energy you've poured into helping me chase my dreams. Mom and Dad, I truly wouldn't be where I am today without you, and I love you so much.

I can't express how deeply grateful I am for everything CMC has given me. The lessons, the memories, the confidence, the love. This is more than just my last recital. It's a celebration of the journey, the people who made it beautiful, and the place that will always feel like home.

- Maya

Maya Grace,

Ever since you were little, we knew you were an artist. Between the shows you would perform and the songs you would write, the dances you would create and the countless drawings, it's always been who you are. At barely two years old, you took your first dance class, and that was it! No matter what else we tried, it was always about dance. In fact, you made pirouettes part of every soccer game.

It hasn't always been easy, and many times giving it up would've been the logical choice. Your response was always the same: I don't care what else is happening. I just love to dance. And your family loved watching you! The joy you exude on stage is palpable, and the self-awareness it has brought you is invaluable. We see true happiness on your face when you perform.

We know this is not the end of your dance journey, and we can't wait for the next chapter. Keep shining, baby girl. We love you so very much!

Love,
Mom, Dad, Aidan and Reid

Olivia Ronneburger

The last fifteen years spent dancing at CMC Dance Company truly went by in the blink of an eye. This studio will always hold such a special place in my heart and I'm so thankful it has played such a huge role in my life. It's hard to believe it is all coming to an end so fast; I wish I could have all the years back!

To my teachers: Thank you for creating a place that I can call home. I've never met another group of teachers who would drop everything in their life for me and this team. Thank you for always believing in me, even when I didn't, pushing me to do my best, and allowing me to express my personal feelings whenever I needed to talk them out. Mrs. Marj and Mrs. Chelsea, thank you for all my amazing solo choreography and being the only people who know what to say to calm me down before I go on stage. Even if you're lying to me and the girl before me didn't just fall on her face or rip a hole in her costume, it always puts the biggest smile on my face. Thank you to Miss Corina for helping me make my acro tricks so strong and giving me the confidence to do anything upside down. I will forever miss hearing your voice telling me to take off my sweatsuit before I step foot into the room. Every single one of you has helped shape me into the person I have become today. Your passion for dance has inspired me, I love you all!

To my teammates: I'm so thankful to every one of you and I couldn't imagine myself dancing with any other girls but you. I will miss you all so much, but I cannot wait to see all the amazing things you do in the future. The bonds and relationships we have created in every group are so special to me. The late-night rehearsals, stressful quick changes, stealing each other's lipstick for a last-minute touch up, sharing pizza and wings after a win, pep talks, and group huddles backstage are some of the things I will forever cherish. Time goes by so fast, never take anything for granted. I'll be back to watch you all kill it next year, I love you guys so much!

To my seniors: Sharing the stage with the three of you has been so special. I will cherish many memories from our senior year. Even though our next journey separates us, I'm so happy CMC will always bring us back together.

To my duo partner: Maya, dancing together since we were two years old has created a special bond like no other. Thank you for always being the person I can count on. I'm glad we don't truly have to "Say Goodbye," because you will forever be my best friend!

The biggest thank you goes out to my family. To my mom and dad, thank you for signing me up for dance lessons when I was two! And thank you for taking me out of soccer when it made me too sweaty so I could spend more time at dance class. Thank you for taking me to every single rehearsal, bringing me dinner on every dance break, and most importantly, showing up to be my biggest supporters in the audience. I wouldn't be half of who I am today without my two biggest role models. To Owen, thank you for showing up for your big sister and sitting through countless competitions. Your hug after competing is one of the things I look forward to most when I come off stage. Seeing the three of you in the front row this year has given me so much love and joy inside. I love you more than you will ever know!

I couldn't have asked for a better last competition season. I've created the best memories this year, but this team isn't done yet! I cannot wait to see where my next journey takes me, but I know CMC Dance Company will always be right behind me cheering me on!

- Olivia

Olivia,

It's hard to believe that this moment is here - your senior dance recital! Putting your first ballet slippers on fifteen years ago, we never realized all that dance and CMC would be for you. A place to express yourself, a place where your closest friendships would form, a place that would teach you about hard work, dedication, and determination. A place that helped shape who you are today!

Watching you grow from your first little twirls to the confident graceful dancer we see today has been one of our greatest joys in life! Your strength, resilience, and passion for dance are inspiring. Watching you step on stage with your beautiful smile for your solos, knowing the courage it takes, will always make us so very proud of you.

As you take the CMC stage for one last time, dance your heart out! Soak it all in and know that we'll be in the audience, eyes filled with tears, hearts bursting with pride, cheering you on like we always have.

No matter where your journey takes you from here, know we are behind you, cheering the loudest and loving you the most!

We love you,
Mom, Dad, & Owen

Danica Sarosy

As I try to put these past fifteen years of my life into one letter, I find myself overwhelmed with emotions. Although I am sad that my time here as a student has come to an end, I can help but be grateful for everything CMC has done for me. This studio has truly become a second home for me and I'm so lucky I can leave with so many great memories to look back on.

I want to start by giving thanks to my parents because truly without them none of this would have been possible. Thank you for giving me the opportunity to do what I love and for giving me the support I need to keep pursuing my dreams. Thank you for all the sacrifices you have made for me to keep going. You've been my biggest fans from the beginning, and you believed in me when I found it hard to believe in myself. Through countless competitions, recitals, to even watching me dance repeatedly throughout the house, without your constant love and support, I couldn't even imagine where I would be today.

Next, my teammates- it's hitting me just how much I'm going to miss dancing with all of you. We've grown up together on that stage and in the studio; sharing laughs, tears, and countless memories. You've been more than just dance friends; you've been my second family. You got to know me and truly understand me more than anyone else. From our very first recital to our final performance, every moment with you has meant the world to me. Though I'm moving on to a new chapter, I'll always carry our memories and the bond we've built in my heart. I couldn't have ever wished to have done this with a better group of people, and I love all of you more than you know.

I give huge thanks to all my teachers. You guys always saw something in me that I could never see in myself. You've all helped me reach down and figure out not only who I am as a dancer but as a person. You've taught me much more than the steps and techniques I need as a dancer, you've taught me how to find strength and confidence in myself. Thank you all for every opportunity you have given to me and for pushing me to become the best version of myself I could be. Without your patience, encouragement, and connections we've built I wouldn't have had the base I needed to build up from. Quite literally through blood sweat and tears you guys have seen it all. I couldn't have done any of this alone but especially not without your endless support and cheering me in from the sidelines.

The last person I want to thank is Mrs. Marj. I wish I could go back and tell myself when I was three walking into my first dance class that the woman teaching me would end up become like a second mother to me. Thank you for all the time and patience you've had with me. You've always been such an inspiration to me. You've seen my grow and taught me how to be confident in my own skin. You pour live and dedication not only to me but to the studio as a whole and it shows. I'll always carry with me the lessons you've taught and how you've used them to shape me into a better person.

As I am getting ready to take this next step in my life, I just want to say how deeply thankful I am for this entire journey. CMC has given me so much; lifelong friends, incredible mentors, unforgettable memories, and a second home. Though I'm moving on, everything I've learned and experienced here will always be a part of me. This chapter may be ending, but the love, strength, and passion I've found through my dance family will stay with me forever. Although this may feel like a goodbye, we all know it isn't. I love you all, thank you.

- Danica

Danica,

It seems like just yesterday you were our perfect baby girl that completed our family, and we blinked and arrived at your senior year.

As a "little Dani" you spread your wings and tried hockey, figure skating, lacrosse, baseball, and swimming but from day one your passion for dance shined through! That passion led us to CMC where you found your people and your second family.

From the friendships you made with your peers and instructors to the self-confidence you developed, we know you have the tools to get through anything life might throw at you.

The road has not always been an easy one and at times you lost your way but through dance and the wonderful CMC family members you were able to not only find your way but thrive.

As we end this chapter and get ready to start the next, use the tools you developed throughout the years from the people that love you. The path may get bumpy at times, but you will always have a place with your family and CMC to support and cheer you.

Love you! Go Pioneers! Merde!

Love,
Mom, Dad, Gehrig, Holden and Nala

It's Recital Day!

We've worked all year long to show you what we can do.

- Please refrain from using flash photography/video during the performances.

The flash not only hurts the performers' eyes but also affects our professional videography.

- Please do not record performances from your seat as you'll block the view of the people seated behind you.
- Please silence ALL electronic devices.
- Please enter and exit the auditorium only in between performances.
- Performers can see you moving and talking in the audience.

Please respect them by not speaking during their routines.

2025 Salutations

2025 Competition Team

Dear Mr. Postman, I don't want you to Turn to Stone when I tell you this, but this has been a Nightmare in The Mind for me. So... Here It Is: I messed up Big Time. I went to A Little Party, and I'll admit, I was Gone Wild. The second the music went Bang Bang, me and my Girls knew It's About That Walk, so we danced like it was a Sign of the Times. Then, I met the Man of La Mancha, and he told me he would bring Sexy Back, wearing his Pink Shoe Laces. It was a Thriller, but I needed to be a good role model for the Little Girls and show them that the Jailhouse Rock is not okay. Anyway, I ended it with him when I found out he was Tripped Out Slim and stealing my Money like the Pink Panther. I felt bad about the whole thing but you're always Jet Set. You Don't Own Me and at the end of the day I am Free. I don't want to Throw It All Away with you. But If We Hold On, it would be the Nicest Thing. I miss Your Light, and when we're together it's like a Dream, my Sweets. We both know I always Made You Look. So, when you're ready, I'll always be Where I First Found You. Love, Your Cover Girl

2025 Seniors

You are now, proudly, CMC Alumni! May you always remember your roots and visit when you're home. We are so excited to see where your paths lead and the adventure that awaits! The best is yet to come! Love, Miss Maddy
