Into The Light*—Nicole's EXCLUSIVE Memoir!

From Hollywood to hell...

That's the path Nicole Weider was traveling—until she hit rock bottom and was transformed by a profound life-altering experience.

Once a poor, small-town girl with a big suitcase and even bigger dreams of stardom, Nicole became a model and moved to Los Angeles, spending her days at auditions and on film sets and her nights partying with the Young Hollywood crowd. But after experiencing the darker side of the glamorous life, she slowly sank into a downward spiral, struggling to stay alive. When God threw her a lifeline, she began anew, furthering her education and founding Project

Inspired, a website to give guidance and support to Christian teenage girls.

Now Nicole shares her personal story in detail to inspire young women everywhere to walk the path of God and stay true to themselves. If one thing is clear from Nicole's journey from model to role model, it's that life gives second chances.
