

Fall Color Tour, Historic Route 66 and Lake of the Ozarks

Weekend of October 25-27, 2019

Join us for an exciting weekend with the Munger Moss Motel as our “center of gravity!”

Meet at the Flying J in Peculiar Friday morning, leaving at 10:00 AM.

Take twisty and tummy tingling route to Lebanon and the Munger Moss Hotel on historic Route 66!

Saturday we will circumnavigate the lake on interesting back roads; visit the Ha Ha Tanka ruins; have lunch at a quaint establishment with an ice cream stop in Osage Beach!

Painstakingly researched eating establishments have been chosen which we think you will approve of.

Traveling back home on Sunday.

Overview

The Munger Moss Motel is a motel in Lebanon, Missouri. It was built in 1946 as an addition to a roadside restaurant and filling station, both of which are now gone. The site's Munger-Moss Sandwich Shop served travellers on U.S. Route 66 in Missouri, circa 1936. Located on the Big Piney River at Devil's Elbow, Missouri until 1945 (at what is now the Elbow Inn), it relocated to Lebanon, Missouri after World War II when construction of a four-lane bypass of U.S. Route 66 in Missouri to Fort Leonard Wood drew traffic away from the original Munger Moss BBQ site.
