The celebration begins with a ribbon cutting at 10 am, and then a scavenger hunt, a StoryWalk, refreshments and limited edition library cards will all be included as we celebrate the new expanded library and look back on 75 years of service.

READING SUGGESTIONS

From your Friends

Run Rose Run is the new(ish) novel penned by the unlikely writing partners Dolly Parton and James Patterson is a Nashville flavored good time. With characters that seem not-so-loosely based on real life country stars, the storyline makes a perfect beach read and was enough to inspire Parton to write a companion album. For an even better time, download the audiobook which stars Parton herself among a full cast of actors.

Firekeeper's Daughter. Angeline Boulley, the former Director of Office for Indian Education with the U.S. Department of Education, has written an award-winning thriller featuring Daunis, a young Native American protagonist. Mysterious drug-related deaths are occurring in Daunis' community, leading her to go undercover with the FBI to discover the source of the corruption. Explore the Upper Peninsula of Michigan, learn more about tribal life, and see Daunis come into her own as an Ojibwe woman—while she solves a mystery!
