President's Message: Michael Amundsen

For my birthday, my youngest daughter Kate bought me and herself plane tickets to Montana so I could share with her in person elements of my Montana/ Norwegian immigrant heritage. And thankfully she was actually interested.

So we flew to Billings and drove first to Miles City where I lived as a child and then to Glendive, where my father grew up. Plus, we spent some time with my cousins in Terry. It was a thrill and it opened Kate's eyes to many things about her heritage.

Below is a new photo of what was the Lutheran Church in Glendive, Montana that my father, his siblings and his parents attended. My aunt Millie played piano for the services and programs here. Both my father and I were christened here. But now it's an art and crafts co -op with a Norwegian twist, and the newer, bigger Church is just down the street.

But of course, the harsh reality is that we can never really go back. Things change. And that's why this trip was so important to me. She could visit graveyards, old houses and schools, farms and aging relatives while they still exist and have enough of a memory to make a forever emotional connection.

See you Saturday.

SEPTEMBER LODGE MEETING: IN PERSON PICNIC Join us on Sept. 11th at 11:00 a.m.

2600 Ocean Park Blvd., Santa Monica

Social Committee: John Aasness

A couple of Association items to take care of to start. The donation of $200 for personal hygiene kits for homeless veterans was passed at the last month zoom meeting. 100 hygiene kits were assembled!

I received a letter from E&B Natural Resources Corp notifying us that we had retained the mineral rights on the property sold on Washington Blvd. in 1984. I sent them our tax info after some checking, and for 2020–July 2021 they sent us a check for the amount of $614.55. Not enough room to give you more details on this, but will fill you in when we can meet in person; possibly at the picnic (Continued on Page 2)

At the Zoom meeting in August, we discussed having a picnic on the second Saturday of September to avoid the Labor Day weekend. Discussed having it at Trinity Lutheran, but new Covid regulations regarding the school seem to have made this a no-no. Guess it will have to be at Clover Park in Santa Monica. Everyone seemed to be happy with this location the two times we met there. The lodge will provide pizza, fruit, water, soda, and dessert. Members are asked to bring lawn chairs and any additional picnic fare they may like. At our September meeting we will need to appoint a Nominating committee, and make plans for events in the following three months; Anniversary, Christmas, etc. Hopefully things will start to happen soon. Hope to see you at the picnic on 9/11/21. John

Make a Difference Day—Have you ever wondered how one person can create positive changes in the world? Contributing in a significant way can seem like a monumental task. On October 23rd, you can pitch in to help others on Make a Difference Day. There is still time to lend a hand to others in a meaningful service project.

For ideas on where to start, visit:

Volunteer.gov https://www.volunteer.gov/s/ Volunteer Match volunteermatch.org Engage engage.pointsoflight.org Salvation Army salvationarmy.org

Volunteers of America voa.org United Way liveunited.org Red Cross redcross.org

Make a difference with these three steps:

1. Identify a need

Do some research and determine who needs help in your community. Donate canned goods, clean up a park, make care packages for a shelter, or host a fundraiser for a charity.

2. Make plans and get the word out

Post flyers, e-mail your friends and family and advertise your project on social media, so volunteers can join your efforts. Make sure to include the date, time, project details, and any other important information.

3. Report back

What measurable impact did your project have? After the 23rd, tell others how you helped change lives for the better. Send a description of your project with results and photos to your District Publicity Director for use in Viking magazine. Whether you design your own project or pitch in on someone else's, do something good for someone else and make a difference in your community.

Norwegian Higher Education Records Set in 2020

In 2020, Norwegian universities and colleges experienced a record year in number of students. In fact, over 51% of bachelor students completed their studies in 2020, making it the first time more than half finished their studies without any delay. The number of students that graduated from Norwegian universities rose about 2,400 people from 2019 to 2020. Additionally, the number of applicants increased 4% from 2019 to 2020. Interestingly enough, some of this growth has been attributed to the coronavirus situation. In an interview this year, Minister of Research and Higher Education Henrik Asheim (H) stated "Experience from previous crises shows that more people want to get an education when times are bad. We saw that last year [2020], and we see that again this year. For the knowledge nation Norway, this is good news because we need more wise minds in all sectors." 2021 is following the positive increase from 2020 and may see even higher growth.

Changed name to "Salmon" to get free sushi

Taiwanese authorities are asking people to stop changing their names. Several people in the country have changed their name to "Salmon" recently.

"Salmon" has become a popular name in Taiwan. Many young Taiwanese have changed their names. Part of the reason is an offer from a chain of restaurants.

A chain has promised that people can get free sushi this week. But then they must have the Chinese characters for salmon in their name—Gui Yu. Five other friends can also have free sushi.

The result is that many have changed their names, according to local media. In recent days, around 150 people have turned up to change their name. Most are young.

"I just changed my name earlier today. Now my name is "Bao Cheng Gui Yu". We have already eaten over 7,000 Taiwanese dollars' worth, a student told a local TV channel.

That sum is around 2,000 kroner. [US$225] Bao Cheng Gui Yu can be translated as "explosive, beautiful salmon."

Several have various different combinations of names containing salmon. Other examples are "salmon prince," "meteor salmon king" and "salmon fried rice."

"I have changed my first name to 'Salmon.' Two of my friends did so, too. We'll just change our names back afterwards," says a woman to the TV channel SET TV.

But not everyone is happy that people are changing their names. The authorities are asking people to stop.

"This type of name change is a waste of time. It also creates an unnecessary amount of paperwork," Chen Tsung-yen said Thursday. He is the Deputy Minister of the Interior.

"I hope people can be more rational," he says.

The offer ends Thursday. It has lasted for two days.

Skifter navn til «Laks» for å få gratis sushi

Myndighetene i Taiwan ber folk slutte med bytte av navn. Flere i landet har skiftet navn til «Laks» i det siste.

«Laks» har blitt et populært navn i Taiwan. Mange unge taiwanere har byttet navn. Noe av årsaken er et tilbud fra en kjede restauranter.

En kjede har lovet at folk kan få gratis sushi denne uka. Men da må de har de kinesiske tegnene for laks i navnet sitt. Det er «Gui Yu». Fem andre venner kan også få gratis sushi.

Resultatet er at mange har byttet navn, ifølge lokale medier. De siste dagene har rundt 150 personer møtt opp for å bytte navn. De fleste er unge.

– Jeg endret nettopp navnet mitt i dag tidlig. Nå heter jeg «Bao Cheng Gui Yu». Vi har allerede spist for over 7.000 taiwanske dollar, sa en student til en lokal TV-kanal.

Summen er rundt 2.000 kroner. Bao Cheng Gui Yu kan bli oversatt som «eksplosiv, vakker laks».

Flere har flere ulike kombinasjoner av navn med laks. Andre eksempler er «lakseprins», «meteor laksekonge» og «laksestekt ris».

– Jeg har skiftet fornavn til «Laks». To av vennene mine har gjort det samme. Vi endrer bare navnet vårt tilbake etterpå, sier en kvinne til TV-kanalen SET TV.

Men ikke alle er fornøyd med at folk bytter navn. Myndighetene ber folk slutte.

 Denne typen navnebytter er å kaste bort tid. Det skaper også unødvendig mye papirarbeid, sa Chen Tsung-yen torsdag. Han er vise-innenriksminister.

Jeg håper folk kan være mer rasjonelle, sier han.

Torsdag er det slutt på tilbudet. Det har vart i to dager.

Spice-Crusted Salmon with Aquavit Sour Cream - Andreas Viestad, NEW SCANDINAVIAN COOKING

The spices that are used in this salmon dish may lead you to think that this is a Middle Eastern recipe. All the spices, however, are also ingredients in the traditional Scandinavian aquavit potato-based liquor. Serves 2. Preheat the oven to 350°F / 175°C

Rinse the fish under cold running water. Pat dry with paper towels. In a small skillet, toast the coriander, cumin, dill, and fennel seeds over medium heat for about 2 minutes, until they start to release their fragrance. Transfer to a small bowl, add the salt, and mix well. Rub the fish with the spice mixture and place in a baking dish. Sprinkle with 1 tablespoon of the lemon juice. Cover and let marinate in the refrigerator for 1 to 2 hours. To prepare the aquavit sour cream, in a small bowl, mix together the sour cream, aquavit, caraway seeds, and chervil. Add vinegar to taste. Cover and refrigerate.

Place the baking dish with the fish on the middle oven rack and bake for 12 to 15 minutes, until the fish flakes nicely with a fork. Serve the fish topped with the sour cream and accompanied by the fennel.

Note: If you cannot find aquavit, season the sour cream with 1/4 teaspoon ground fennel seeds, 1/4 teaspoon ground dill seeds, 1/4 teaspoon ground cumin seeds, 1 teaspoon sugar, and 1 tablespoon brandy.

Ingredients:

- ◆ 1 pound (½ kg) salmon fillet, skin on, any pinbones removed
- ♦ 2 tsp coriander seeds, crushed
- ♦ 2 tsp cumin seeds
- ♦ 2 tsp dill seeds
- ♦ 2 tsp fennel seeds
- ♦ 1 tsp salt
- ♦ ½ cup (½ dl) fresh lemon juice
- ♦ ½ cup (½ dl) sour cream
- ♦ 1 Tbsp aquavit
- ♦ 1 tsp caraway seeds
- ◆ 1 Tbsp finely chopped fresh chervil
- 2 tsp white wine vinegar, or to taste

TIX Celebrates Differences at Eurovision—Norway's entry into this year's Eurovision Song Contest, "Fallen Angel," was written and performed by flamboyant rock star Andreas Haukeland, better known to his fans as TIX. This stage name was inspired by the constant storms of facial twitching and blinking he experiences due to Tourette's Syndrome. He arrived at Eurovision not just to showcase his music, but to celebrate the fact that living with a debilitating condition doesn't have to stand in the way of achieving your dreams. Lyrics for "Fallen Angel" were born out of TIX's own experiences with bullying and mental health issues. He feels a lot of people can relate to the latter, after living through 2020 and the pandemic. TIX made it to the final round of the epic contest, which typically draws a television audience of 200 million. After finishing in 18th place, Haukeland released a new single, BeautiFull. Find this offering along with Fallen Angel and other tunes on his YouTube channel: https://www.youtube.com/user/TIXofficial.

Message from Zone 5 Director, Troann Loy

Here we are in summer and from what I can tell it is going to be way too hot for all of us this summer. I know I will be looking for ways to stay cool. I hope you can too!

I am so happy the Zone 5 Lodges are finding ways to meet outside and in parks. It is so nice to see everyone. I got to see members from Solbakken #6-064 at their picnic. I went to Ivar Aasen #6-045 in Santa Barbara to their Syttende Mai celebration in one of the member's backyard. It was well attended and great fun. Then went to Thousand Oaks to Norseman #6-091 for their Syttende Mai celebration in a park. To be with my Norwegian brothers and sisters again was great fun. I hope to get to all 7 of my lodges by October whether they are meeting inside or outside.

Please remember to be safe and take precautions. That darn Covid is still around. A dear friend of mine lost her son to Covid.

Stay in touch with all your members if you have not seen them or talked to them for a while. We need to stay in contact with our Norwegian family.

Always,

Troann Loy zone5@sofn6.org

Legit or Legend? Viking funerals proposed in Maine

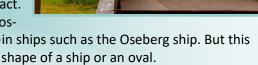

A bill was recently introduced in the Maine legislature which, if passed, would allow a nonprofit to perform Viking funerals.

Imagine the scene: a fallen warrior is placed on a sailboat and pushed out to sea. Flaming arrows cascade onto the ship as the deceased departs to Valhalla in a fiery farewell.

But did the Vikings actually practice this funeral custom? In reality, the flaming boat turns out to be a favorite trope of pop culture, rather than historical fact. Research of their graves reveals that the Vikings interred their dead with possessions that would be helpful in the afterlife, and—if they were wealthy—in ships such as the Oseberg ship. But this was done on land. Burial mounds were typically marked with stones in the shape of a ship or an oval.

Contents of Viking graves also show that remains were cremated elsewhere, as there is no charcoal or burnt wood present in the burial mounds.
