

MEET NATALIE LARMAN

My name is Natalie Larman and I am the head "Elf" at Natalie's Elf Shelf Holiday Store. I have been in the holiday store industry for 10+ years. I was born and raised in a small town in Oklahoma. If you ever get to talk with me on the phone. You can still hear that "southern accent".

Since, I was a small child the holidays have always been my favorite time of year. I love that my team and I get to spread holiday cheer every year to children across the country.

I am married with 2 daughters named Emma and Vivian. When I am not at the warehouse working. I am going from a basketball court to a softball field.

If you ever have heard about us over the years. One thing that is very important to me is customer service. I still believe in the old school approach. No robots, No voicemails..... THERE WILL ALWAYS BE A REAL PERSON TO ANSWER ALL YOUR QUESTIONS—EVEN AFTER HOURS!

We look forward to working with you to make sure your holiday store is a huge success this year at your school!
