MARKET UPDATE OCTOBER 2025

Canada remains without a finalized trade deal with the U.S., though recent developments suggest negotiations could resume. A resolution would likely provide a boost to both confidence and economic activity heading into year-end. Markets edged higher in October, supported by strength in the technology sector and easing global trade tensions. However, economic growth continues to run at a modest pace as trade uncertainty with the U.S. weighs on exports and business confidence.
