

Xavier, right now we are broken and feel very sad

And we will always recall fab memories of the great times together that we had

Val and I will treasure Cuba, Dominican Republic and most recently our Alaskan cruise

Imitating Idi Amin, heavy snoring and every now and again a little snooze

Endless charitable deeds done especially for the Cuban people

Rally driving in East African Safari, not for the faint hearted or feeble

Settled down in Toronto after leaving the UK in the seventies,

Exciting times, dinner parties, singing, great dancing and eyeing all the Canadian beauties.

Question – why did You have to leave this earth so soon?

Unfortunately we never made it to Puerto Rico and Cancun.

Eternally you will remain in our hearts forever

Isolated no – you are now with your brothers and parents together.

RIP our dear cousin until we meet again

Absolutely, a friendship to treasure, The Lord be with you Amen
