Registration Form and Terms and Conditions

TUTOR _____(or replacement as necessary)

SUBJECT _____

You (the payee) must agree to the following terms on which Gold Music and it's representatives offers music tuition:

- ◆ You are responsible for the pupil registered below being available for music tuition provided by the tutor on behalf of Gold Music at pre-arranged times.
- ◆ Lessons are deemed to be given if you are not available at the agreed times, unless you have given adequate notice detailed in clause 5 below.
- ◆ Gold Music reserves the right to provide a replacement tutor if the tutor specified above becomes unavailable for any reason. This will not affect payments or notice periods set out below.
- ◆ Payment must be received by Gold Music before blocks of lessons commence. Invoices are rendered in advance and payment falls due on receipt. (If the bank returns a cheque, a handling charge of £10 will be made).

- ◆ 24 hours notice of cancellation or postponement of a lesson for whatever reason must be given; otherwise forfeiture of the tuition fee is charged for inconvenience.
- ◆ Notice of discontinuation of tuition for any reason should be at least 5 lessons in advance or the appropriate fee in lieu (at your current lesson duration) must be given to Gold Music in writing.
- ◆ If a short break in tuition has to take place (other than normal holidays) there must be at least 1 paid lesson in hand to carry over the break.
- ◆ Where applicable, a sum towards travelling expenses incurred will be payable to the tutor.
- ◆ Tuition times may be subject to alteration due to other professional commitments e.g. performing engagements the tutor may have. Every effort will be made to give adequate notice when this occurs.
- ◆ Instrument loss or damage incurred whilst on or near tuition premises does not render Gold Music or their tutors liable. Please ensure that instruments are fully insured.
