Experience Settler Life at Jones Park's Pioneer Day

Experience lively, old-fashioned music coming from a cabin porch, the aroma of campfires in the distance and settlers grinding corn nearby as the sights, sounds and smells of an 1830s Texas settlement and American Indian village come to life during Pioneer Day Saturday, November 11 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Jesse H. Jones Park & Nature Center.

With authentically outfitted re-enactors, old-fashioned games, interactive experiences and musical performances by the Celtaire String Band and the North Harris County Dulcimers, this free event will leave visitors pining for the past.

Kick off the fun with a hayride to the park's Redbud Hill Homestead for popular settler-era games including stilts, a stick and hoop game, corn cob toss, rope tug-of-war and horseshoes. At 2 p.m., take the time to recognize a veteran during Jones Park's Salute to Veterans event.

Then participate in activities like grinding corn, butter churning, washing clothes on a washboard, weaving and spinning thread, writing with a quill pen and ink, and practicing archery.

Children can enjoy making a variety of crafts including ropes, corn husk dolls, paper bonnets and beaded bracelets. Additionally, pioneer-style clothing and other artifacts will be on hand for a photo opportunity in a covered wagon.

The festival also includes plenty of settler skill demonstrations throughout the homestead, including woodworking, leatherworking, wood shingle making, rail splitting and military drills. Other demonstrations include black powder weaponry, fire starting, hide tanning, fabric dyeing, gardening and blacksmithing. Samples of fresh cornbread, yaupon tea, jerky, freshly churned butter and other outdoor cooking will also be available.

The Akokisa Indian Village will host interpreters of American Indian lore and artifacts, including flutes and other instruments. Five structures covered with palmetto leaves have been recreated, including a chickee, sweat lodge and council lodge.

Hand-crafted items such as leather pouches, bonnets, yarn dolls, flint knapped arrowheads and necklaces made by Jones Park's arts and crafts volunteers will be available for purchase at the Peddler Wagon and Settler Store. Also, concessions offered by the Jesse Jones Park Volunteers include chicken sandwiches, hotdogs, chips and drinks. All event proceeds help defray the cost of the diverse ongoing and special programs at the park.

With leadership from Commissioner R. Jack Cagle, Jesse H. Jones Park & Nature Center is a Harris County Precinct 4 facility located at 20634 Kenswick Drive in Humble. All programs are free of charge and open to the public. Harris County Precinct 4 programs serve people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, sex, religion, national origin or physical ability. Jesse Jones Park Volunteers (JJPV) welcomes applications from interested participants. For more information about the park or any of the activities and programs offered, please call 281-446-8588 or visit www.hcp4.net/jones.

FOOTNOTES BOOK CLUB

Book club this month will be on Tuesday, November 14 at the home of Virginia McGriggs with Carol Bright as discussion leader. We'll meet one week earlier than we usually meet because of the Thanksgiving holiday. Besides our book discussion, we will also choose books for January through May 2018. So it will be a busy meeting. The November book is The Husband's Secret by Liane Moriarty. "My darling Cecilia, if you're reading this, then I've died." Imagine if your husband wrote a letter to be opened after his death, but you find the letter before his death. What do you do? Do you open it? Suppose it contains a deep, dark secret that has the potential to destroy the life you've built together. Cecilia Fitzpatrick finds that letter which is about to change everything for her and others who barely know Cecilia. Will there be earth-shattering repercussions from this secret? It sounds intriguing, and we readers will find out all.

Liane Moriarty, born in 1966, is from Sydney, Australia. The oldest of six children, she loved to read as a child, and her friends would hide their books when she would come to play. Her father commissioned her as a young girl to write a novel. For an advance of $1 she produced a 3-volume work called The Mystery of Dead Man's Island. Fast forwarding to her post-school career, she worked in advertising and marketing.

Attempts at short story writing and first chapters for novels didn't go anywhere. However, when a younger sister had a book published, Liane rushed to write a children's book which was rejected. She then continued her education with graduate studies and wrote a successful first novel as part of her master's degree work. The Husband's Secret is actually her fifth novel and was published in August 2013. At one point she had three novels on the "New York Times" best seller list at the same time, a rare feat for any author. Apparently much champagne was drunk by her family. She is now a full-time author and lives in Sydney with her husband and two children.

NATIONAL NIGHT OUT

About 30 residents stopped by at various times to participate in the first annual Misty Hollow area NNO block party. Ms. Melody Douglas' initiative, coordination and a very lucky weather break culminated in an enjoyable evening of fellowship, refreshments and a lot of laughter. After determining the best location, permission was sought and graciously granted by Teriwood Circle owners, and then flyers were personally delivered to "save the date" and encourage attendance. Tables, chairs, food and drinks came together both by prior planning and fortuitous last minute help from nearby neighbors. We were so pleased with the turnout for our first NNO attempt and left with resolve that next year would be even better. Thanks, Melody!

Kinsmen Lutheran Church invites the community to a Thanksgiving Day Feast which is free of charge and open to all. Prior to the feast, those who wish may participate in a 5K/10K "Run for Your Turkey" walk or run, which helps fund the meal. Please see page 9 for more details.

Kinsmen Lutheran Church Invites the Community to a Thanksgiving Feast

For the eighth year in a row, Kinsmen Lutheran Church will host a free Community Thanksgiving Feast on Thanksgiving Day, November 23.

All are welcome to this free event, which centers around a delicious meal of turkey, dressing, mashed potatoes, gravy, sweet potato casserole, green bean casserole, corn, cranberries, rolls and pie.

"This meal is for everyone—young, old, singles, families, neighbors and friends," said the Rev. Dr. Beth Warpmaeker, senior pastor of Kinsmen Lutheran Church. "As a church, we consider this community to be part of our extended family. So we want to warmly welcome everyone in, celebrate together, and be reminded of all that we have to be thankful for, whether this has been a good year or a tough one."

In preparation for the holiday, a Thanksgiving Eve worship service will be held at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, November 22.

The Thanksgiving Feast will be served from 11 a.m.-1:30 p.m. on Thanksgiving Day at the church, 12100 Champion Forest Drive in Houston, 77066. Reservations are not needed. Along with great food and conversation there will be other traditions as well—including crafts and moonwalks for the kids, and football on TV. Last year more than 700 people enjoyed the day.

Before the plates of food are served, however, those who wish to build up their appetite are invited to take part in the 6th Annual Run for Your Turkey 5K/10K walk or run. The run starts at 8 a.m. Thanksgiving Day at the church, winds through the tree-lined neighborhood of Greenwood Forest, then brings participants back to Kinsmen to cross the finish line.

Registration for the 5K/10K walk or run is $20 through November 2 and includes a T-shirt. Late registrations are $30 through November 22, or $40 on race day. Proceeds from the event help fund the Thanksgiving Feast. To register, please visit www.kinsmenlutheran.org.

Kinsmen Lutheran Church is a congregation that strives to be rooted in faith and relevant to life. For more information, please visit www.KinsmenLutheran.org or call 281-444-3126.
