OUR 2019 OUTSTANDING GRADUATES

Please join us in congratulating three very special neighborhood women. Hard work and dedication to their studies over the years have certainly brightened their future opportunities!

Katherine Barnett, daughter of Brent and Brenda Barnett and a lifelong resident of Olde Oaks, is graduating this spring from the University of Oklahoma with a B.S. in industrial and systems engineering. She was named the Outstanding Senior in the ISE department and received an academic medal for a 4.0 GPA throughout college. She will be pursuing a master's in ISE next fall after interning with AT&T this summer.

Caroline Barnett, daughter of Brent and Brenda Barnett and lifelong resident of Olde Oaks, is a 2019 homeschooled high school graduate. Caroline is a National Merit Scholar and has taken dual-credit classes at Lone Star College – Tomball her junior and senior years. She has been a leader in a homeschool speech-and-debate club and will be competing in her organization's national championship in South Carolina in June. She has also been a part of the student ministry at Champion Forest Baptist Church and has performed several Spoken Word presentations as a part of the Media ministry at CFBC. In the fall, Caroline will be attending Baylor University as a University Scholar, majoring in philosophy and classical languages.

Kelly Suzanne Chapman is the daughter of David and Chris Chapman of Olde Oaks. Kelly attended Westfield High School, and later obtained a BA in anthropology from the University of Texas (Austin), a master's in biological anthropology from the University of Florida (Gainesville), a master's of public health from the University of Florida College of Public Health (epidemiology), and is graduating with a PhD from the University of Florida in medical anthropology in May 2019.

Organizing the Interior of Your Home Monthly Mini-Test

There are many reasons that having an organized home benefits the entire family. Here are just a few. First, there is a very special feeling within oneself knowing that your home is organized, clean and smelling good! You will see how proud your cleaning efforts will make you. Having an organized home also helps with mental health. And most importantly, the children will imitate and learn from your positive actions.

To see where you score in this month's mini-test, just answer these ten easy questions:

Mark your answers with a ✓ or X.

- We plan weekly family meetings to address home-cleaning and take this mini-test.
- According to age, we delegate our children to help with an assigned task.
- We develop a family home-cleaning plan.
- We set aside time to organize and clean our home daily.
- We put our belongings in the pre-assigned proper place.
- We keep our closets clean, free from clutter and hoarding.
- Our home decorations and items are kept to a minimum. Less is more!
- We keep books, games, toys and trash off the floor.
- Our shelves, blinds and counters are dusted.
- We clean up and pick up after ourselves.

Key: 10 Points Each

Your Score Here: _____

The first step to organizing your home is always the hardest. However, it's important to know that once you get started, it's easy to get used to the routine. You'll be proud you did!

Pearl Fincher Museum of Fine Arts

My Hero! Contemporary Art & Superhero Action: June 1 – August 17

The Pearl Fincher Museum of Fine Arts is delighted to announce its summer 2019 exhibition: My Hero! Contemporary Art & Superhero Action as well as its Heroes & Villains themed summer art camps.

With more than 130 pieces, My Hero! is a “POW-erful” exhibition for all ages that is being presented exclusively at the Pearl this summer, for Houston-area residents to enjoy. The exhibition explores what it means to be a superhero and celebrates the possibilities when you have a magic cape, lasso, or superhuman power. This intriguing collection features work by contemporary artists from around the world, in a variety of media including sculpture, printmaking, and photography.

My Hero! at the Pearl opens to the public at 1 p.m. on Saturday, June 1. Special previews will be held for patron museum members on Friday, May 31, and all members on Saturday, June 1. Visit www.pearlmfa.org for information on becoming a member.

“Superheroes appeal to people of all ages,” said Ani Boyajian, director of the Pearl Fincher Museum of Fine Arts. “My Hero! will be fun for children and families, but it also offers unique twists for teens, adults and seniors to enjoy.” The exhibition includes a series of photographs by Dulce Pinzón of Brooklyn, NY, depicting the lives of immigrants as society’s superheroes, such as an image of Catwoman working as a nanny, and Superman delivering pizzas on his trusty bike. Several artists ponder what happens to superheroes when they get older, and San Francisco artist Lizabeth Eva Rossof created a 6’ 7” tall, 420-pound statue of Batman as a historic Terracotta Warrior.

Fans will recognize their favorite superheroes in the exhibition, including Superman, Spider-Man, Batman, Robin, Captain America, Wonder Woman, Supergirl, Catwoman, Hulk, Iron Man and more—in “out-of-the-box” new and interesting ways. My Hero! will be featured in the Main Gallery and Rebecca Cole Gallery of the Pearl Fincher Museum of Fine Arts from June 1 through August 17. The exhibition is made possible in part through generous gifts from The Hamill Foundation and Houston Federal Credit Union.

Located at 6815 Cypresswood Drive in Spring, the Pearl Fincher Museum of Fine Arts is open 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday. Admission is free. Donations are appreciated and help continue the Pearl’s mission of art, education, and community.

Vincent van Gogh: His Life in Art

Through June 28

The MFAH is the only venue for this major survey that brings together more than 50 masterworks by one of the most iconic artists in the history of Western art. Vincent van Gogh: His Life in Art follows Van Gogh (1853–1890) through four key stages of his career, from early sketches to final paintings.

Few artists left behind as complete a diary of life and work as Van Gogh, whose decade-long career as an artist began when he took up painting in 1881. Vincent van Gogh: His Life in Art highlights the artist's early years in the Netherlands; his luminous period in Paris; his search for light and color in the south of France; and his exploration of nature as a source of enduring inspiration in Saint-Rémy and Auvers.

The exhibition showcases portraits, landscapes, and still lifes drawn primarily from the collections of the Van Gogh Museum in Amsterdam and the Kröller-Müller Museum in Otterlo, the Netherlands.

The Exhibit is located at Audrey Jones Beck Building, 5601 Main Street, Houston 77005. For more information, go to mfah.org.

Tips for Visiting During Final Weeks

As this popular exhibition draws to a close, plan your visit in advance for the best experience!

- Get your tickets before you arrive. Purchase online or on-site prior to your visit.
- See the exhibition sooner rather than later. The volume of guests increases as the closing date draws near.
- Visit on a Tuesday or Wednesday. Peak visitation days are Thursday through Sunday.
- Consider your parking options in advance. Go to mfah.org/parking for a handy map.
- It's okay to view the art in the order that works for you. Feel free to walk around from gallery to gallery and experience these masterworks in the sequence that suits you best.
- Audio-tour beacons work from two feet away. No need to wait for a turn to stand directly in front of the beacon – point your player toward it to trigger new audio content.
- If you're an MFAH member, bring your membership card. Don't miss out on your free tickets, plus shop and parking discounts.

THE CYNTHIA WOODS MITCHELL PAVILION

The U.S. Army Field Band to Give FREE Performance on Pavilion Main Stage

The internationally acclaimed United States Army Field Band and Soldier's Chorus of Washington, DC will continue its long tradition of presenting free public performances when it appears at The Pavilion as part of the venue's 30th Performing Arts Season on Thursday, July 25 at 7 p.m. This is a free event and tickets are not required. Gates will open at 6 p.m.

The Concert Band and Soldiers' Chorus are the oldest and largest of The U.S. Army Field Band's performing components. These two ensembles combine to present joint concerts on their national tours.

They have performed in all 50 states and 30 foreign countries for audiences totaling hundreds of millions.

The 60-member concert band and 29-member soldiers' chorus perform regularly in some of the most famous concert halls in the world, and just as often in the humblest auditoriums in the smallest of communities. The joining of these two ensembles allows them to offer unparalleled versatility of programming, ranging from orchestral masterworks and operatic arias to Sousa marches, jazz classics, and Broadway musicals. The band and chorus also perform independently, and have recently shared the stage with such ensembles as the Boston Pops, the Cincinnati Pops, the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, and the National Symphony Orchestra. The Pavilion first welcomed the Army Field Band at a free concert July 2009.

"It was an honor to host the Army Field Band in 2009 and we are honored again that they reached out to us to schedule a return performance," said Jerry MacDonald, President and CEO of The Pavilion. "This exciting performance provides residents an opportunity to honor our servicemen and women by attending the concert and is a wonderful addition to our anniversary season."

If you would like more information about The Pavilion, please visit our website at www.woodlandscenter.org. Look for The Pavilion on Facebook, Twitter, Snapchat, YouTube and Instagram, or download The Pavilion's iOS or Android app.

Opened in 1990, The Cynthia Woods Mitchell Pavilion is part of The Center for the Performing Arts at The Woodlands, a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization that provides diverse, high-quality performing arts events for the entertainment and enrichment of a broad regional audience. Through numerous educational and community outreach programs, The Pavilion is a catalyst for attracting new audiences to the performing arts and building strong ties between the arts and educational institutions.
