²⁴ “This is the day that the Lord has made;
let us rejoice and be glad in it.”

Psalm 118:24 ESV

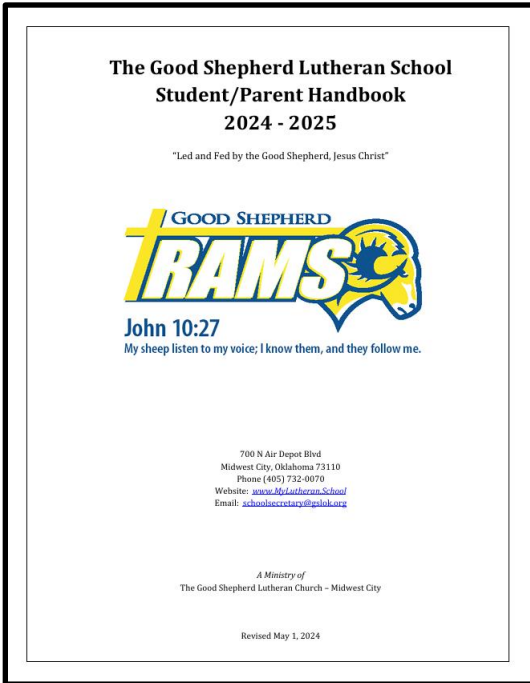

“Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, ²looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. ³Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted.”

Welcome!

As we settle into a new school year, we would encourage you to become familiar with the Student/Parent Handbook that can be found on the website, mylutheran.school:

Why Send Your Child to a Lutheran School?

Lutheran Elementary Schools:

- Are driven by a commitment to the Gospel and focused on a mission of bringing hope and healing to students and families.
- Are governed by board members who clearly understand their roles and focus on the vision and board policies that effectively govern the operation of the school.
- Meet or exceed state and national academic standards at all grade levels.
- Have educators who model visionary leadership. They practice stewardship of resources, build up others and empathize with others.
- Have educators who model servant leadership. Do those served grow as persons; do they, while being served, become healthier, wiser, freer, more autonomous, more likely themselves to become servants? (Robert Greenleaf)
- Have educators who model spiritual leadership. They study God’s Word, share their personal faith story, apply Law and Gospel appropriately, exhibit a passion for ministry, act courageously, equip God’s people for service, care for others, demonstrate integrity, and pray.

“Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, ²looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. ³Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted.”

Mr. Jake Rogers Education Executive Message

“I have no greater joy than to hear that my children are walking in the truth.” 3 John 1:4

Welcome to the Oklahoma District Education Page!

<https://oklahomalutherans.org/education>

We are delighted to have you explore our vibrant Lutheran community of Lutheran schools where faith, learning, and character development come together. At all of our district’s Lutheran schools and preschools, we provide a Christ-centered education that nurtures academic excellence, spiritual growth, and personal integrity. We educate children from infants to twelfth grade. We currently have eighteen childhood programs and eight elementary/middle schools across the state. Our oldest school is St. Paul’s in Enid. It was established in 1926. Immanuel in Broken Arrow, is home to our only Lutheran high school. At our Lutheran schools, you are known!

Our district’s dedicated teachers and staff are committed to fostering a supportive and inclusive environment where each student is valued and encouraged to reach their full potential. Rooted in the teachings of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod (LCMS), we strive to instill in our students a strong sense of faith, compassion, and service to others.

Thank you for visiting our website and considering Lutheran schools for your child’s educational journey! I invite you to learn more about our schools, programs, values, and community. We look forward to partnering with you to inspire and guide your child in their academic and spiritual growth.

May God continue to bless you, your family, and the entire Oklahoma District Lutheran Schools community.

Let Us Pray for Our Good Shepherd Lutheran Day School

“Jesus, Savior and Good Shepherd, who has given Your life to save us, You have directed us to feed and tend Your lambs and sheep. Bless our Lutheran schools. Strengthen, equip and encourage all who teach and all who learn in them, so that Your name is praised and honored as knowledge, skills and attitudes imparted and acquired. Make our school a haven of Your grace and mercy. Give patience and discernment to our teachers as they daily interact with their students. Give them the insight to apply rightly both Law and Gospel, equipping their students to share the Good News of the forgiveness of sins won for us on Calvary.”

“As Your holy Word is studied, applied and committed to memory by our students, cause it to find fertile soil that it may bear fruit in a great understanding of You and in a genuine appreciation of Your saving grace. Establish our school as a blessing to our students and families, to our entire congregation and to our community. Through Word and Sacrament, strengthen and encourage each of our school families so they grow in faith toward You and in love to one another, that, by your grace, they may be a light in a world held captive in the darkness of sin. In Jesus name we pray, Amen.”

Classroom News

Preschool

Our first week back to preschool and my students and I had a blast! We made new friends and have gotten into a good routine for our time together. We are ready to take on the school year!

Ms. Samantha Johnson

PreK

Our PreK class is off to a great start! We have been going over all our classroom rules and how we can treat each other with kindness. We read “How to Fill a Bucket” and “Our Class Family.” We finished the week with Friendship Friday, and everyone brought a snack that we put together for the ultimate friendship snack mix. This is a great way to show the students how we should care for each other throughout the school year.

Mrs. Alesha Baumann

Kindergarten

Kindergarten is off to a great start! The students are adjusting well to their new schedule and classroom. They are getting to know Ms. Dodd and me along with all their new and old classmates. The first week of school we focused on the Bible story of Creation and Adam and Eve. The students learned and recited our Bible verse, Psalm 100:3. They all did a great job! I am looking forward to teaching your children this year in kindergarten.

Mrs. Dana Johnson and Ms. Stephanie Dodd

1st Grade

We are so very pleased with our class and the excitement they have for learning. We are planning to have a great year and look forward to what is yet to come. I thank you for bringing your child to us. God is good!

Mrs. Grace Rower

2nd Grade

Wow! These first few weeks have been great as we settle into a brand new school year. We are adjusting to our daily schedule and reviewing what we have previously learned. Your child will be hearing about kindness and caring for one another, right along with their daily studies. I am looking forward to the time spent with your child.

Mrs. Gail Marlatt

3rd & 4th Grade

My third and fourth grade students are awesome! We did a lot of reviewing the first week of school and getting to know each other. KINDNESS is our word of the year. “Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you,” Ephesians 4:32 is the Bible verse we started the year with and will continue to focus on this school year. Thank you for sharing your children with me this year. I am looking forward to a great year!

Mrs. Marla Junghanns

5th & 6th Grade

The 5th & 6th Grade class is excited to be back in school and looking forward to a wonderful school year!

Ms. Belinda Harke

7th & 8th Grade

Our first week of school has been great! The students are getting along with each other, and they love our class and so do I! I can’t wait to see what blessings this school year brings us all!

Ms. Kerriona Carson

Individual Instruction

Summer vacation went by quickly and now it’s good to be back at school. The first week has been busy and quite smooth. I am looking forward to lots of fun this school year. God’s Blessings!

Shepherding our Students

Stacey Eising
August 12, 2024

(LCMS/Erik M. Lunsford)

It is a challenging time for Lutheran schools, as it is for most schools. Scarce funding, declining congregational attendance, shifting cultural ideologies, teacher and administrator shortages — these things worry us and wear us down.

Yet, faithful Lutheran education remains as crucial today as it was back in the 1870s, when C.F.W. Walther wrote: “May God preserve for our German Lutheran Church the treasure of its parochial schools! Humanly speaking, everything depends on that for the future of our church in America.”

During those early decades, LCMS communities faced severe hardships common to early American immigrants: harsh conditions, poverty, illness, meager resources. Nevertheless, they insisted on prioritizing schools. Every founding congregation of the LCMS had a day school. They prized education for the same reason Martin Luther and the early Reformers did: “that the next generation might know [God’s testimony and laws] ... and arise and tell them to their children” (Psalm 78). An education with Christ at its center is the greatest gift we can give our children.

Since that time, LCMS schools have faced many more challenges. Yet they have endured — today, our LCMS schools make up the second-largest parochial school system in the U.S.

The August issue of The Lutheran Witness (LW) takes up the topic of Lutheran education — its purpose and its history; the difficulties it has overcome; the challenges it faces today and the ways our schools are working to overcome them; the various models of Lutheran schools; the pressure to focus on either “mission” or “Lutheran identity” and how these two can go hand in hand; how parents can and must support their children’s education at home; and more.

Faithful Lutheran communities have always been and will always be teaching communities. We have been given an immeasurable gift in our over 2,500 Lutheran early childhood centers, preschools, elementary schools and high schools. We have also been handed an incredible opportunity. May God preserve us and keep us faithful for years to come.

“Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, ²looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. ³Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted.”
