Prayer for Schools: O Eternal God, bless all schools, colleges, and universities that they may be lively and safe centers for sound learning, new discovery, and the pursuit of wisdom; and grant that those who teach and those who learn may find you to be the source of all truth; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Men's Breakfast – The Brotherhood of St. Andrew invites all men and youth to join them for fellowship in the parish hall this Saturday. Please bring your own breakfast. Their meeting follows breakfast.

Parish Information Sheet –We would love for you to fill out a parish information sheet if you're a new member of St. Barnabas! We want to include you in our birthday and anniversary list, directory, and church emails. The form is on the corner table at the back of the church.

St. Barnabas' Episcopal Church

110 East Lincoln Street
Tullahoma, Tennessee

Episcopal services were inaugurated in Tullahoma in 1867 by the Reverend Harvey O. Judd, Deacon. The small congregation was formally organized as the Mission of the Incarnation. St. Barnabas was associated with the Diocese as a Parish in January 1874 and soon became the center for mission work in the area. The first church building, a frame structure, was consecrated in 1874. In 1897, it was replaced with the present larger sandstone edifice, a Gothic Revival design of architect R.H. Hunt.

Although repairs and updates have been necessary over the years, the church, realizing the history and significance of the building, has been careful to preserve and restore the original features of the building. A new roof in 2012 is a restoration of the original slate roof. The interior was restored in 2014 to its original configuration of plaster walls and dark-wood wainscot. The church is noteworthy for its stained-glass windows. "The Cross in the Crown" over the altar and "The Pelican in Her Piety" in the organ-pipes room probably were installed when the building was first built. The other stain glass windows date back to 1964. The church continues to serve the community through its several outreach mission programs.
