

KOSHER SCOTLAND

THANKSGIVING TRIP

GLASGOW

CULTURE

Glasgow's City Centre houses some of Scotland's most prestigious museums, art galleries, and iconic cultural spots as well as some of the best nightlife Scotland has to offer. Every evening there is a wealth of comedy shows, live music, and other events to suit every taste.

ATTRACTIONS

Iconic spaces such as Ashton Lane, Kelvingrove Art Gallery, Merchant City, the Hunterian Museum, Glasgow University Campus, the Gallery of Modern Art, Princes Square and many others are nestled amongst the centuries old buildings.

DAY 1

AFTERNOON

Arrive in Glasgow with complimentary transfer to the hotel for check-in with lunch upon arrival.

EVENING

After having time to freshen up at the hotel, you will travel south to Ayrshire for our Scottish-themed Thanksgiving event at Culzean Castle.

You will be greeted by a traditional Scottish bagpiper before having the chance to spend some time exploring the castle, enjoying the incredible views over the sea and participating in different Scottish themed activities such as kilts, bagpipes, whisky and more. In the evening enjoy a celebratory Thanksgiving Dinner in the castle's opulent ball room.

DAY 2

MORNING

Morning excursion - bus from the hotel for a tour of the Glengoyne distillery then a short walk on the banks of Loch Lomond, one of Scotland's most gorgeous national parks.

AFTERNOON

Shabbat prayers in the stunning Garnethill Synagogue, a national heritage site built in 1870, where you will also have the opportunity to learn about the local Jewish community's history in the attached museum. Shabbat will come in at around 3:30pm.

EVENING

Shabbat dinner in Garnethill Synagogue before making the short walk back to the hotel.

DAY 3

MORNING

Shaharit Prayer Service in Garnethill Synagogue with the local Jewish community followed by Shabbat lunch.

AFTERNOON

After lunch, optional guided walking tours to the Kelvingrove Art Gallery & Museum and other city centre attractions.

EVENING

In the evening we will have a majestic dinner in Pollok House - Glasgow's answer to Downton Abbey - regarded as one of Scotland's grandest homes.

Completed in 1752, the interior of Pollok House is truly stunning with decorative plasterwork in the rooms and a world-renowned art collection.

DAY 4

MORNING

Tour Scotland's capital city of Edinburgh. One of the most popular tourist destinations in Europe and visited by millions of people every year. Learn about the story of the Scottish Royal Family with a tour of Edinburgh Castle, built nearly 1000 years ago.

AFTERNOON

Explore the Royal Mile, a medieval street which was previously the bode of Scottish nobility and now an attractive luxury shopping destination. See Holyroodhouse Palace - the Royal Family's official residence in Scotland

EVENING

Dinner and drinks in one of Edinburgh's best event spaces for the final night of the trip.

DAY 5

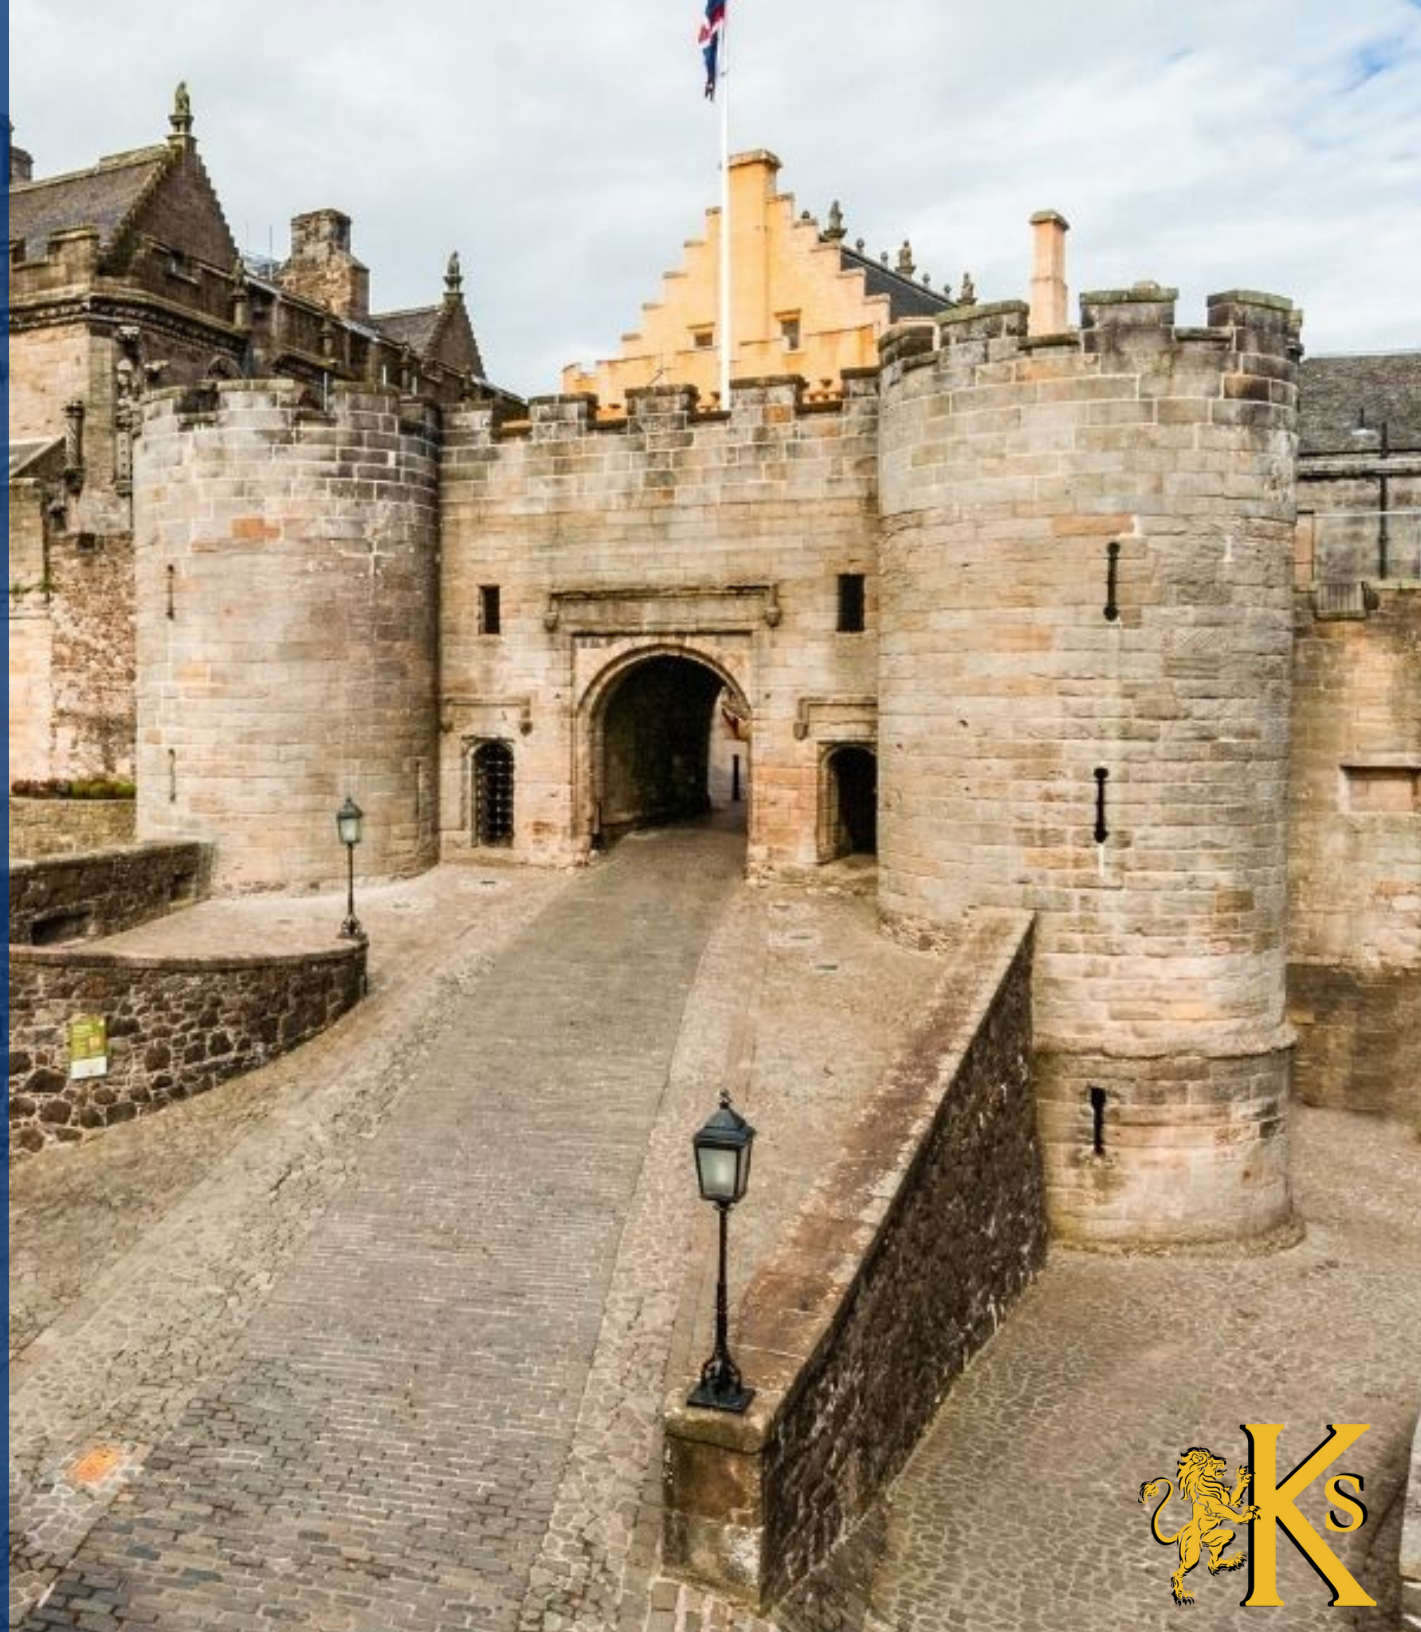

MORNING

After a late breakfast, check-out from the hotel and head off to the world famous to Stirling Castle for another tour of historic Scotland.

AFTERNOON

For those heading home we will provide onward transport to your point of departure. We look forward to welcoming you back to Scotland soon.

For those who want to do the extension option you will continue to Inverness where you will tour the Highlands.

INFORMATION

Kosher meals, all events, excursions, accommodation and airport transfers from Glasgow or Edinburgh included in price.

Dates:

23-27 November
(4 nights, 5 days)

Limited spaces available
Email: office@kosherscotland.com

PRICE

$3500 per person*

EXTENSION

Discounted price, only 16 spots available on the extension trip.

27-30 November
(3 nights, 4 days)

$1500 per person*

*Flights not included in price

DAY 1

EXTENSION

Inverness is a romantic and quaint city transporting you back in time. Must see attractions include Inverness Castle, the city's beautiful River Ness, and Scotland's largest bookshop - Leakey's - which inspired Harry Potter author J.K. Rowling's vision of Hogwarts' Library.

Beyond the city, Inverness is the perfect base to explore the Highlands. The region is home to much of Scotland's world famous scenery which has inspired countless books and movies for generations. Visit the legendary Loch Ness and many more locations. With incredible coastlines, wild expanses, rugged mountains, secluded islands, rushing rivers, and rich woodlands, the Highlands will take your breath away.

DAY 2

Despite only being a small region within the Highlands, Speyside plays host to over half the distilleries in Scotland, Speyside has the greatest concentration of malt whisky producers compared to every other whisky-producing region. Because of this, there is great variation in the number of fantastic whiskies distilled in the region.

Most people would typically recognise Speyside Scotch for its two primary styles. Firstly, there is the light, sweet and honeyed single malts of distilleries such as The Glenlivet and Glenfiddich (which are the two best-selling single malt whiskies in the world). A more recent tradition has also emerged in the region of producing the big bodied, sherried drams of distilleries like The Macallan and Glenfarclas.

DAY 3

The Isle of Skye is one of the most stunning places on Earth. With sweeping views of mountainous landscapes, windswept moors, dramatic coastlines, ancient ruins, quaint villages, friendly locals, unpredictable weather and more sheep than people, the island is a world of its own that hasn't changed much in the last several hundred years.

Skye is home to majestic geological features, such as the Old Man of Storr, the Quiraing (pictured) with its incredible rock formations, and the Cuillin which hosts the word famous fairy pools. Skye's varied habitats also mean you'll have a chance to see amazing animals such as otters, dolphins, golden eagles, white-tailed sea eagles and puffins on a Scottish wildlife tour.

Skye is a truly magical place. The the island has countless ways to enchant you, with its mountain ranges, miles of dramatic coastline and captivating history. The only hard part is fitting everything into one trip!

