

Position: Structural Engineer

Qualifications

- Professional Engineer License in Washington State
- NCEES Certified
- Bachelor Degree in Structural or Civil Engineering or a related field
- 10+ years working in the field of Structural Engineering
- Experience working on Federal Government Projects
- Comprehensive understanding of Defense Unified Facilities Criteria (UFC)

Key Responsibilities

- Perform structural calculations
- Prepare and oversee the preparation of construction documents
- Prepare project specifications
- Participate with the project team to understand / establish project goals and objectives including workplan, project schedules, budget parameters, while ensuring the highest product quality.
- Sign and seal drawings as needed
- Conduct quality control reviews of contract documents to ensure quality documents
- Conduct onsite investigations and analyze data (reports, tests, drawings, & other)
- This position is remote; however does require some (domestic) travel for site visits

Skills

- Demonstrate accuracy and thoroughness
- Proficiency in AutoCAD and/or Revit
- Ability to effectively manage multiple tasks and provide timely response to all project stakeholders
- Professional style of verbal and written communication
- Strong organizational skills and exceptional attention to detail
- Motivated, self-starter who works well independently or as a team

Work Location

- 100% Remote

Schedule

- Monday – Friday
- 8-hour workday flexible schedule

Benefits

- Health insurance

- Dental insurance
- Paid time off
- 401(k) Matching

Compensation

- Compensation is commensurate with experience and includes paid time off, company sponsored health insurance plan (medical and dental) and 401(k) matching plan.

Armitage Architecture is an equal-opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, religion, color, national origin, gender, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, status as a protected veteran, or status as a qualified individual with a disability.

EEO Employer / Vet / Disabled

As a Federal contractor, Armitage Architecture complies with all Federal guidelines. Due to the current mandates on COVID-19 vaccinations, if you are offered employment, you will be required to provide proof of vaccination as a condition of employment unless you are legally entitled to a religious or medical accommodation.