A Chronicle of Merriment at the Enchanted Village Renaissance Faire As recorded by the Hye Chamber of Commerce

Hear ye, hear ye! Let it be known throughout the Hill Country that the Enchanted Village Renaissance Faire at Blue Lotus Winery did unfold this past weekend with great revelry, noble fellowship, and delights fit for kings and commoners alike.

From the moment the gates opened, the grounds were alive with swordplay and gallant clashes, jesters and costumed wanderers, and the sweet strains of minstrels, musicians, and theatrical troupes who brought mirth to all who passed by. Merchants from near and far displayed their art, wares, and handcrafted treasures, tempting travelers with tokens of beauty and skill.

A marvel of the realm, the Avian Trainer, did captivate crowds with feathered companions whose grace and cleverness drew gasps and applause in equal measure.

Amidst the bustle, the Hye Chamber of Commerce kept the village well-fed, serving hearty turkey legs, savory sausage on a stick, and flame-kissed hamburgers to hungry revelers. The aroma alone could have summoned a thousand knights from the countryside.

To those who journeyed forth to lend their hands, their time, and their good spirits, the Chamber offers its deepest thanks. And with special honor we recognize Mike Kemp, Cass Lutes, and Teri Hull, whose tireless efforts and steadfast dedication ensured the Chamber's success throughout the festivities.

If thou didst miss this grand weekend, know that thou truly missed a spectacle of joy, camaraderie, and enchantment. But fret not-plans for next year's faire are already stirring, and another wondrous gathering awaits on the horizon.

Until then, may your days be merry, your goblets full, and your hearts ever ready for adventure.

Chamber Spotlight:

Featherstone Ranch Vineyards A New Hill Country Gem in Hye, Texas

Featherstone Ranch Vineyards has quickly become one of the Hill Country's most inviting new destinations—a place where Texas wine, wide-open skies, and authentic ranch life come together in a way that feels both fresh and deeply rooted in tradition. Located just off Klein Road, this family-owned winery is already making its mark with 100% Texas wines, sweeping views, and a warm, neighborly spirit that fits beautifully into our local community.

Featherstone Ranch is dedicated to crafting small-batch wines that showcase the character of Texas terroir. Their tasting room offers a relaxed, welcoming atmosphere where guests can enjoy thoughtfully made wines while taking in the ranch's panoramic Hill Country scenery. Every bottle reflects the owners' commitment to quality, hospitality, and the land they steward.

Part of what makes Featherstone Ranch so memorable is its blend of vineyard elegance and ranch authenticity. Visitors often catch a glimpse of the ranch's beloved Belted Galloway "Oreo cows," along with Breck and Finn, the family's two friendly Vizslas who have become unofficial greeters. The setting feels peaceful, open, and unmistakably Texan. For those looking to linger a little longer, the property features eight luxury casitas designed for comfort and quiet relaxation. Each casita offers a private porch with views that stretch across the Hill Country—perfect for a weekend getaway, a romantic retreat, or a small group gathering.

As the Texas Wine Trail continues to grow, Featherstone Ranch stands out for its authenticity, its family-driven mission, and its dedication to creating a place where neighbors and visitors alike can slow down, savor good wine, and enjoy the beauty of Stonewall. It's a wonderful new asset to our region and a business we're proud to spotlight.
