Teach – Coach - Mentorship

When I first became a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, I had no idea where it would take me. As I traveled the chairs at the post, district, and Department level I met so many great Veterans that inspired me to do more than I thought I was capable of doing.

Over the past few years, I learned that recruiting new members can be an adventure. But I also learned that Veterans are capable of doing things non-Veterans do not even attempt.

A few concerns I heard from Veterans have about not joining our great organization.

1. Meetings are too long. (Remember, young Veterans have family and work many shifts).
2. Too much drama at meetings! Talk about Veteran, family, and community)
3. Smoking
4. Do not feel welcome when they enter a post.

We will put emphasis on new members as well as reinstated members.

This year's membership goal is 101%. There is no doubt in my mind that it is a reachable goal.

Reach out with any questions or ideas.

Sincerely,

Bill

Message from 2025-26 Department Membership Team

“No one does more for Veterans” is the motto of the VFW, and if everyone lives by this motto, membership will grow as services expand. Yes, membership is the fuel that drives our organization and gives us the strength to push for more legislation, like the PACT Act, but we need to stand strong and fulfill the purpose of why our organization was created. Sometimes, we get lost in the pursuit of acquiring members and lose sight of what our main goal should be. We are an organization in place to help our fellow combat veterans and serve their needs. If we start every conversation asking the veterans we meet how we can help them, membership will automatically fall into place. If we are to expand, we need to adjust to the needs of younger veterans. We need to reach out and provide the new generation of vets with the feeling of purpose and camaraderie that many feel they are missing from their time in the service. Welcome every veteran you meet with a handshake and ask them what we can do for them. We need to let all veterans know that the VFW is here for them, and not that we expect them to serve the VFW. Younger vets are looking for community and want to be a part of something they see as a support network for them. Once their needs are met, they may feel it is their purpose to recruit and help others. Retention of the veterans who are members of our posts is as simple as showing them we care about their needs. Every member should be contacted at least once a year, and the first thing we should ask is, “What can your post do for YOU?” Remember, paying it forward will pay big dividends in the end. Be there for veterans, and they will follow.

Recruiting Tips

1. KNOW THE VFW: As a recruiter, be aware of the VFW programs.
2. NETWORK FOR MEMBERS: As coworkers, friends, and family if they know Veterans. Follow up on leads as quickly as you can.
3. MAKE PERSONAL CONTACT: Try to meet prospective members face to face when possible.
4. DON'T BE AFRAID TO ASK: Many of our fellow Veterans have never been asked to join the VFW. When you ask, you may be pleasantly surprised.
5. BE PERSISTENT< NOT PESTERING: If they decline, respect their decision.
6. LOOK FOR COMMON EXPERIENCES: Ask questions to learn about their military experiences, family, and daily life. Describe the benefits of membership in a way that relates to the potential member.
7. LISTEN CAREFULLY: Be a good sales person by being an active listener. Listen for excuses and objections and be prepared to overcome them.
8. BE PREPARED TO SHARE YOUR STORY: Consider why you are a member of the VFW and tell others why you are so committed to our organization. Your experiences with the VFW is a great recruiting tool.
9. BE PREPARED: You may meet potential members anywhere so be sure to keep an application with you at all times. If you use a smartphone, learn about the VFW app and how you can use it to recruit. Stay current as VFW National Membership provides updates and assistance.
10. ENJOY YOURSELF: If you are enjoying yourself, potential members will feel your enthusiasm and be more likely to join.

Successful Membership Booths

Start Early

- This will work best as a joint VFW and Auxiliary operation. Cooperation is key.
- Contact the manager of a shopping mall, trade show, state or county fair, or any place there is a large public gathering. Ask for permission (or pay) for a space to set up a membership booth.
- Give advance news releases to your local newspaper and radio stations regarding your membership booth.
- Place recruiting posters and signs in store windows, post signs at the entrances to your city and along major thoroughfares or any place the public will notice them.
- Obtain an adequate supply of recruiting and informational materials. Some material is available from Department and National Headquarters. Other material can be obtained from the VFW store.

The Operation

- Decorate your booth with recruiting posters. Display informational material on the table. At least one VFW member and one Auxiliary member, wearing VFW caps with Post or VFW logo, should be in the booth at all times. Display a sign large enough to let everyone know you are there.
- If local and state laws allow a drawing, get a member or merchant to donate a gift. Prepare tickets with stubs that request name address and phone number. Hold the drawing for the prize and save the stubs for later contact.
- As eligible Veterans visit the booth, inform them of the VFW programs and pass out informational material.
- As eligible Veterans visit the booth, have them fill out a form giving information on their military service and whether they are interested in joining the VFW. If they wish to join, SIGN THEM UP. If they don't wish to join at this time, don't be discouraged. Make sure you get their name, address, and phone number and contact them at a later date.

The Follow Up

- Within a few days, have your membership team contact the eligible Veterans and talk to them about joining the VFW. This is the time to verify their eligibility and collect their dues.
- Be sure membership teams are prepared to answer questions about the various programs the VFW sponsors.
- When a Veterans joins, make them feel welcomed. Ask them to take an active part in the Post and to help recruit others.

Teach – Coach - Mentorship

It is not the responsibility of the post membership team to do all the work. Every member should be involved and made to feel a part of the membership program. Post activities attract members. A strong, active Post helps promote membership. Some membership builders are:

- Activities in community service, Americanism and youth programs.
- Capable service officer to assist veterans in the community.
- Dances, dinners and other social functions for VFW members and their guests.
- Publicize all Post events.
- Maintain a clean, well-managed Post and Canteen.
- Hold interesting and informative Post meetings.
- Have active cooperation between your Post and Auxiliary.

A Piece of History

What does Gold, Blue, White and Silver Represent?

During World War I, an Army officer of the 5th Ohio Infantry, Captain Robert L. Queissner who had two sons serving on the front line, designed and patented the Blue Star Service Banner. This service flag/banner quickly became the unofficial symbol of a mother and/or father who had a child in military service.

Throughout WWI, American women who had family members serving their country wore a Blue Star around their left arm. As the war progressed and the number of dead escalated, mothers wanted to express their loss as well as the pride and honor they felt for their country. Those mothers of the fallen began sewing a Gold Star over the blue star and began calling themselves Gold Star Mothers.

If the family member symbolized is killed in action or dies while serving in the military, the blue star representing that individual will be superimposed on it a gold star of smaller size so that the blue forms a border. The traditional Gold Star Mothers and Families Day is the fourth Sunday in September.

A White Star Family is one who had a close relative that served in the military and lost them to suicide. The purpose of the White Star Family program is to honor those service members and provide proper care and support to the families.

The Silver Star Families are those who's loved ones has been wounded, contracted a serious illness or injury in a war zone. On Silver Star Service Banner Day, traditionally May 1, we recommit to caring for those who return to us wounded or ill.

Many Gold, Blue, White, and Silver Star Families reside within our community. Their sacrifice has been great and may their courage and patriotism inspire us to greater service for our country.

As members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, we ask you to remember the sacrifices of these Families as their loved ones gave their "last full measure of devotion" to preserve the ideals of a free America.

May we, in grateful remembrance never forget Freedom is Not Free and that much has been sacrificed for our freedoms.

Commander's Introduction:

Carol Whitmore was elected Senior Vice Commander-in-Chief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the U.S. on Aug. 1, 2024, at the 125th VFW National Convention in Louisville, Kentucky.

Carol served in the U.S. Army from 1977 to 2013, earning her VFW eligibility by serving in Iraq. In recognition of her service, she received the Legion of Merit Medal, Bronze Star Medal, Army Commendation Medal (six), Army Achievement Medal, Good Conduct Medal, among many others.

She joined the VFW in 2012 at Post 9127 in Des Moines, Iowa, where she maintains her Gold Legacy Life membership. In 2022, she was elected as designee for National VFW Commander-in-Chief for the year 2025, becoming the first woman and first Iowan to hold the position.

Commander's Statement:

Commanders, this will be the longest year, with the shortest days. It will test you in more ways than you can imagine. If it were easy, everyone would do it. Membership is tremendously important in our organization, but it is not the only thing. When you go through your year, change what you can, do the right things and leave the rest. Prioritize and organize.

I have three main focuses: Advocacy, service officers and our POW/MIA mission. They all tie together, and it is what the VFW was founded on. They impact fellow veterans and their families lives. Be the change for a fellow veteran. Honor those who came before us. If we promote these three things, I know we will evoke more interest, which will bring more members.

101% membership is our goal. The OIF/OEF community is ready to be involved. Let them know what we do, how we can change lives, and how they can feel a part of the military community again. Tell our story, tell your story!!!

Have no regrets, don't take anything personally, never assume anything....be the transformation to the future! Honor the dead, by helping the living!

FOR VETERANS BY VETERANSMembership Mission:

To build a strong organization through recruiting new members while retaining our current membership, building a solid foundation for the future. To assist in mentoring our leadership and members, coordinate programs to support our Posts, Districts, and Departments in their membership efforts, and to provide training for all levels of VFW membership.

All-American Program:
