

Rhythm 'n Ribs Championship BBQ and Music Festival
Yorkton Exhibition Grounds
July 26-28, 2019

Performance information for artists

The Health Foundation of East Central Saskatchewan is hosting Rhythm 'n Ribs Championship BBQ and Music Festival July 26-28, 2019 at the Yorkton Exhibition Grounds.

- The stage performances will consist of:
 - Two 45-minute sets on Friday July 26, one spot being reserved for past or present GX94 Star Search winners.
 - Nine 45-minute sets on Saturday July 27, one spot being reserved for past or present GX94 Star Search winners.
 - Five 45-minute sets on Sunday July 28, with the two early sets for gospel acts and the two later sets for commercial acts, one being reserved for past or present GX94 Star Search winners.
- Rhythm 'n Ribs will pay each artist per 45-minute set.
- Artists need to show up and play.
- Artists may sell their own merchandise.
- Applications will be adjudicated by industry peers on EPK, availability, and why they are looking forward to participating in 2019 Rhythm n' Ribs.
- If selected, artists will be expected to promote this event through your own
- social media channels.

If you are interested in participating, please fill in the submission form.

- Submissions close June 14, 2019 with the final list to be sent out upon completion of adjudication.
- We have a limited number of performance spots, so get your submissions in ASAP.
- Performance to be acoustic, basically guitar and vocals and/or small groups.

Please provide a minimum of two possible dates you are available. First submissions received will get preference of dates.

If you are selected and can't make your date, you will be responsible to find a replacement.

Applications and EPK must be sent to:

- Murray Yung: murray.yung@gmail.com, phone 306-621-3043