The Charlotte Chorale will proudly present “Rhythms and Rhymes in an American Landscape”, a beautiful tribute to American composers, poets, and lyricists on April 18, 2026.

Under the direction of Dr. William Dederer, The Chorale will entertain the audience with music by Leonard Bernstein, Stephen Foster, Richard Rogers, George Gershwin, Randall Thompson, and Samuel Barber, lyrics by Oscar Hammerstein II, and Stephen Sondheim, and poetry by Robert Frost and Ogden Nash.

Those in attendance will be delighted by the two solo presentations by The Chorale’s accompanist, Juan Baquero.

Please join us as we continue to celebrate America with this fabulous collection of music on Saturday, April 18th at 4 PM at the Burnt Store Presbyterian Church, Punta Gorda. For further information and tickets, please visit <https://www.charlottechorale.com>.

About The Charlotte Chorale

The Charlotte Chorale is a non profit vocal ensemble of approximately 45 volunteer members of men and women. Founded in 1989, The Charlotte Chorale celebrates its 38th year in 2025-2026 season performing in Charlotte County. Performances are held at the Charlotte Performing Arts Center and the Burnt Store Presbyterian Church in Punta Gorda. The Chorale has been under the direction of Dr. William Dederer for the past thirteen years.

It has been said that music is the universal language of mankind. It brings people together from diverse cultures and backgrounds in celebration not of their difference, but in recognition and celebration of their oneness. It is the mission of The Charlotte Chorale to do this while enhancing, educating and enriching the lives of all by preparing and presenting professional-level choral music of all genres.
