

These Bars Do Not A Prison Make (Key of G)

His hands were pierced for me. And His blood has set me free

You know His life they could not take

And these bars do not a prison make. No know these bars do not a prison make

Instrumental Filler

Well, Paul and Silus were thrown in jail. But the doors flew open and the chains they fell

The jailor got down onto his knees. How can I be saved won't you tell me please?

His hands were pierced for me. And His blood has set me free

You know His life they could not take

And these bars do not a prison make. No these bars do not a prison make

Instrumental Filler

They said believe in Jesus and you'll be saved. God has washed all your sins away.

At that hour they all believed and were filled with joy for what they received.

His hands were pierced for me. And His blood has set me free

You know His life they could not take

Instrumental Filler

One day the earth will tremble and the heavens shake. We'll see the doors swing open of those pearly gates. And the joy of heaven we have received. Thanking Jesus down on our knees. Yes, thanking Jesus down on our knees

His hands were pierced for me. And His blood has set me free

You know His life they could not take

And these bars do not a prison make. No these bars do not a prison make (slow down ending) No these Bars do not a prison make. (Rapid strum + Yeah eh ey e yeah Final strum)!
