Developing Godly Thinking

PHILIPPIANS 4:4-9

READ FIRST

→ MOST OF US KNOW THAT AT SALVATION, our sins are forgiven and God gives us eternal life. But much more accompanies our redemption: We receive a new nature, power over sin, and a renewed mind. However, these qualities require development, which happens through knowledge of Scripture, submission to the Spirit, and diligent effort on our part.

It's a good idea to periodically evaluate whether our thinking, attitudes, and behavior are in line with God's character and the truths of Scripture. Also, we should take note of what absorbs our attention. It's not healthy to overload our mind with media reports or entertainment that doesn't reflect God's values. Regular exposure to such material can easily produce anxiety, discontent, and ingratitude. (ADULTS) Pornography.

The apostle Paul gave us a measuring stick to help us determine what is worthy of our attention. He said to dwell on whatever is true, honorable, right, pure, lovely, commendable, excellent, and worthy of praise (Phil. 4:8). With the help of the Holy Spirit, we can filter our thoughts through this list.

So ask yourself, What fills my mind? and give priority to things in these categories. As your thoughts align with Christ's, you'll begin to recognize what is right, good, and wise—and your life will more closely reflect His.

The Touch That Transforms

MATTHEW 28:18-20

→ IF YOU LOOK UP THE WORD TOUCH IN A CONCORDANCE, you'll discover that many instances involve Jesus. Throughout the Gospels, people were healed of sickness, infirmities, and disabilities when the Lord touched them. But His touch reached beyond the physical to their spiritual needs.

Today, we frequently see the word touch in the context of scandal, impropriety, or immorality. Yet ministry requires hands that reach out to help and serve while we also verbally proclaim the good news of Christ. We touch lives not just by telling others about Jesus but also by showing them genuine love and compassion.

Our hearts, mouths, and hands should be operating together to accomplish the world-changing mission of the church. When we join together as a body of believers, we affect lives through the power of prayer, the ministry of the Word, discipleship, and fellowship. All are required as the church calls the lost to salvation and equips believers for the work of service.

Jesus touched lives, and as His followers, we must do likewise. How might God touch a heart through you today?

Becoming a Generous People

PROVERBS 11:24-28

→ GOD IS THE ULTIMATE GIVER, and in gratitude, we're to imitate Him. As He provides us with material wealth and possessions, we become channels through whom He blesses others and carries out His work on earth. Becoming a generous person begins with biblical thinking:

- 1 → Remember our heavenly Father's goodness and love, which prompted Him to send His Son to die in our place. He did this to provide us with the riches of eternal life.
 - 2 → Acknowledge that God owns all the world's resources, and whatever you have is a gift from His hand.
 - 3 → Release your grip on earthly wealth. Then trust the Lord to meet your needs, and share generously.
 - 4 → Realize that the church is a means not only for spreading the gospel but also for helping the needy and supporting those in ministry.
 - 5 → Invest your time, talent, and treasure in God's kingdom.
- As followers of Christ, we're to give faithfully to the local church and those in need. By generously offering back to the Lord a portion of all He's given us, we'll experience genuine joy, peace, and security. These blessings are of far greater value than anything the material world has to offer.
