why

Rom. 2 last part of chapter

He is not a Jew who is one outwardly, such as circumcision
But he is a Jew who is one inwardly, heart, + mind.
So he that is of the circumcision (a Jew) was counted by God as not being circumcised, if his heart and mind wasn't right with God.

But he that was not of the circumcision (a Jew) but a gentile though not under the law was counted as of the circumcision. When he kept the law

II Cor 3:6

The law on the letter kills or judges, but must be in the heart + mind not on tablets of stone but fleshy tablets of the heart

He who is under Grace or follows love is not bound by the law or a law because love will not break one of the least of these commandments.

Man looks on the outward appearance but the Lord looks on the heart. Example 1st John 1:47-49 spirit of spirit + spirit of flesh Gal 5:19-23
