

IF IT IS NOT STATED IN THESE RULES, YOU SHOULD ASSUME IT IS NOT ALLOWED AND TALK TO NC PRO-4 OFFICIALS BEFORE YOU PROCEED.

COMPETITION ETIQUETTE

1. NO RECKLESS DRIVING – Intentionally driving in a way to cause damage to another competitor(s) car driving beyond your and / or your cars abilities.
2. NO AGGRESSIVE CONTACT – These are open wheel race cars, treat them as such. Intentional contact beyond that which is competitive racing will NOT be tolerated
3. NO BLOCKING – Defined as:
 - A. Failure to pass a slower car in a timely manner that results in holding up the rest of the field. (This rule applies to staying next to a slower car when you are capable of passing. It does not apply to side by side racing between evenly matched cars.)
 - B. Driving tactics that prohibits a faster car from passing
 1. Failure to lift the throttle when your car has a push
 2. Failure to give a challenging car racing room
 3. Not holding your line when you are being lapped

Failure to adhere will result in the following:

1st Offence – Written letter and placed on probation

2nd Offence – Disqualification from the race with loss of all points and money

3rd Offence – Will be asked to resign from participating with the NC Pro-4 Modifieds

If a wreck is the result of this type of driving, the above mentioned actions will be taken plus you will be docked 25 points and or fined. If you cause a second wreck at any point in the same season, you will be suspended for (5) races or the remainder of the season, which ever is greater.

TRACK ETIQUETTE

1. Pit meetings are mandatory. Failure to attend will result in starting at the rear of all the nights events.
2. Absolutely NO FIGHTING, (which includes detrimental threats made towards a fellow race member or their crew) will be tolerated at the track.
3. NO SPEEDING in the pits. There will be a $100 fine imposed for anyone driving fast and / or reckless in the pit area. This will double with the 2nd offence. In the event there is a 3rd offence the fine will be increased to $500 and a (1) race suspension.
