

Kalisthenic Kingdom Rule Book
3rd Edition

Footage.....	2
Equipment.....	2
One Rep Max Street lifting Rules.....	3
Muscle up.....	3
Pull up.....	3
Dip.....	3
Squat.....	3
Weighted Endurance Rules.....	5
Body Weight Endurance Rules.....	6
Weight classes & Judges.....	7
Injury.....	8

Footage

- For the Weighted Endurance and 1 Rep Max Street lifting competitions, judges will be recording all the reps done by the competitor.
- Recorded reps would be used to confirm if a competitor's rep is valid, and it will be used for any disputes the competitor may have.
- General footage may also be used during all competitions for social media posts and promotion.

Equipment

- After careful consideration, all competitions will allow the use of equipment.
- This includes: knee sleeves, elbow sleeves, squat belt, and wrist wraps. Different types of dip belts are also allowed.
- However, the use of knee straps and elbow straps are not allowed.
- If a competitor wishes to use equipment while warming up, he or she may do so.
- Bandages such as KT tape and the like are permitted.

One Rep Max Street lifting Rules

Muscle up

- ALL COMPETITORS MUST DO THEIR POUNDS (LBS) TO KILOGRAMS (KG) CONVERSIONS PRIOR TO GIVING THE JUDGE WEIGHT THEY WANT TO ATTEMPT. THE JUDGE WILL NOT DO THE CONVERSIONS FOR THEM.
- All competitors get 3 attempts at this lift.
- Your name will be called 3 times on a microphone when you are up next to give the judge the weight you wish to attempt and to prepare. If the competitor does not respond or is not ready in time by the third call, the competitor will miss their attempt.
- Competitors have 1min to perform their lift.
- 1 misgroove is allowed.
- No false grip will be allowed.
- Weight must be between the legs and not across the shins of the competitor.
- Full lock out at the bottom and top of the lift, and competitors must wait until the signal is made before lifting. If the lift is made before the signal, this would be a false start and would be considered a no rep.
- Lock out must be at the top of the lift.
- Minimal hip kip and minimal knee kip within the realm of natural movement that is not advantageous is permissible.
- There must be a brief pause at the top of the lift to show control of the weight.
- Chicken wing reps would be counted as a no rep.
- Grinding is allowed, double grinding would be a no rep.
- Competitors are not allowed to rest their chest on the bar, this would be considered a no rep.
- Tie breakers are decided by which competitor had the most efficient form.

Pull up/Chin up

- ALL COMPETITORS MUST DO THEIR POUNDS (LBS) TO KILOGRAMS (KG) CONVERSIONS PRIOR TO GIVING THE JUDGE WEIGHT THEY WANT TO ATTEMPT. THE JUDGE WILL NOT DO THE CONVERSIONS FOR THEM.
- All competitors get 3 attempts at this lift.
- Your name will be called 3 times on a microphone when you are up next to give the judge the weight you wish to attempt and to prepare. If the competitor does not respond or is not ready in time by the third call, the competitor will miss their attempt.

- Competitors have 1min to perform their lift.
- 1 misgroove is allowed prior to the attempt.
- No false grip will be allowed
- Weight must be between the legs of the competitor.
- Full lock out at the bottom of the lift, and competitors must wait until the signal is made before lifting. If the lift is made before the signal, this would be a false start and would be considered a no rep.
- Minimal hip kip and minimal knee kip within the realm of natural movement that is not advantageous is permissible.
- Knee kipping is not allowed and would be considered a no rep.
- Chin must be over the bar for the rep to count.
- Thumb over and thumb under are both permissible.
- Grinding is allowed, double grinding would be a no rep.
- Tie breakers are decided by which competitor had the most efficient form and/or had more clearance over the bar.

Dip

- ALL COMPETITORS MUST DO THEIR POUNDS (LBS) TO KILOGRAMS (KG) CONVERSIONS PRIOR TO GIVING THE JUDGE WEIGHT THEY WANT TO ATTEMPT. THE JUDGE WILL NOT DO THE CONVERSIONS FOR THEM.
- All competitors get 3 attempts at this lift.
- Your name will be called 3 times on a microphone when you are up next to give the judge the weight you wish to attempt and to prepare. If the competitor does not respond or is not ready in time by the third call, the competitor will miss their attempt.
- Competitors have 1min to perform their lift.
- 1 misgroove is allowed prior to the attempt.
- Weight must be between the legs of the competitor.
- Legs are not allowed to hit the box when lifting. This will result in a no rep.
- Full lock out at the top of the lift, and competitors must wait until the signal is made before lifting. If the lift is made before the signal, this would be a false start and would be considered a no rep.
- The rear deltoid must break 90 degrees from the elbow for the rep to count.
- The hips must be lower than the bars for the rep to count.
- If the rear deltoid does not break 90 degrees from the elbow and/or hips are not below the dip bars at any point of motion, this will be considered a no rep.
- Grinding is allowed, double grinding would be considered a no rep.
- Tie breakers are decided by which competitor had the most efficient form and the most depth.

Squat

- ALL COMPETITORS MUST DO THEIR POUNDS (LBS) TO KILOGRAMS (KG) CONVERSIONS PRIOR TO GIVING THE JUDGE WEIGHT THEY WANT TO ATTEMPT. THE JUDGE WILL NOT DO THE CONVERSIONS FOR THEM.
- All competitors get 3 attempts at this lift.
- Your name will be called 3 times on a microphone when you are up next to give the judge the weight you wish to attempt and to prepare. If the competitor does not respond or is not ready in time by the third call, the competitor will miss their attempt.
- Competitors have 1min to perform their lift.
- 1 misgroove is allowed prior to the attempt.
- Full lock out at the top of the lift, and competitors must wait until the signal is made before lifting. If the lift is made before the signal, this would be a false start and would be considered a no rep.
- The hips must break 90 degrees from the knee for the rep to count, if the hips are above the knees, this would be considered a no rep.
- Grinding is allowed, double grinding would be considered a no rep.
- Tie breakers are decided by which competitor had the most efficient form and the most depth.
- If the competitor fails the attempt, he or she MUST NOT bail the weight by dumping the bar behind them. This will cause an IMMEDIATE DISQUALIFICATION of the competitor.

Weighted Endurance Rules

Pull ups (weighted endurance)

- For this lift, the males will have 3 weight options of 50KG (5 points), 40KG (3 points), and 20KG (2 points). Females and men 45+ will have the option of 10KG (5 points), 5KG (3 points), and 2.5KG (2 points).
- The reps will be continuous.
- Weight must be between the legs of the competitor.
- No false grip is allowed.
- Full lock out at the bottom of the lift, and the competitor must wait for the tap to proceed with the reps. Lifts done before the tap will be a no rep.
- Minimal hip kip and minimal knee kip within the realm of natural movement that is not advantageous is permissible.
- Knee kipping is not allowed and would be considered a no rep.
- Chin must be over the bar for the rep to count.
- Thumb over and thumb under are both permissible.
- Grinding is allowed, double grinding would be a no rep.
- 7 second rest at the bottom of the pull up is permissible, if rest exceeds 7 seconds, the competitor would be forced to no longer proceed with their reps.

Dips (weighted endurance)

- For this lift, the males will have 3 weight options of 70KG (5 points), 50KG (3 points), and 30KG (2 points). The females and men 45+ will have the option of 20KG (5 points), 15KG (3 points), and 10KG (2 points).
- The reps will be continuous.
- Weight must be between the legs of the competitor.
- Full lock out at the top of the lift, and the competitor must wait for the tap to proceed with the reps. Lifts done before the tap will be a no rep.
- Rear deltoid must break 90 degrees from the elbow for rep to count.
- The hips must be lower than the bars for rep to count.
- If the rear deltoid does not break 90 degrees from the elbow and/or hips are not below the dip bars at any point of motion, this will be considered a no rep.
- Grinding is allowed, double grinding would be a no rep.
- 7 second rest at the top of the bars is permissible, if rest exceeds 7 seconds, the competitor would be forced to no longer proceed with their reps.

Muscle ups (weighted endurance)

- For this lift, males will have the option of 20KG (5 points), 15KG (3 points), and 10KG (2 points). The females and men 45+ will have the option of 5KG (5 points), 2.5KG (3 points), and bodyweight (2 points).
- The reps will be continuous.
- Weight must be between the legs of the competitor.
- Full lock out at the bottom and top of the lift, and the competitor must wait for the tap to proceed with the reps. Lifts done before the tap will be a no rep.
- Minimal hip kip and minimal knee kip within the realm of natural movement that is not advantageous is permissible.
- Chicken wing reps would be counted as a no rep.
- Grinding is allowed, double grinding would be considered a no rep.
- Competitors are not allowed to rest their chest on the bar, this would be considered a no rep.
- 7 second rest at the top of the bar is permissible, if rest exceeds 7 seconds, the competitor would be forced to no longer proceed with their reps.

Body Weight Endurance Rules

Muscle ups (body weight endurance)

- This lift will be 2 points.
- Full lock out at the top and bottom of the muscle up.
- No knee kipping, knee kipping would be considered a no rep.
- Minimal hip kip and minimal knee kip within the realm of natural movement that is not advantageous is permissible.
- Grinding is allowed, double grinding would be considered a no rep.
- 7 second rest at the top of the bar is permissible, if rest exceeds 7 seconds, the competitor would be forced to no longer proceed with their reps.

Dips (body weight endurance)

- This lift will be 1 point.
- Full lock out at the top of the dip.
- Rear deltoid must break 90 degrees from the elbow.
- Hips must be below the dip bars at the bottom of the dip.
- 2 second deadstop, competitor must wait for the tap in order to proceed with the next rep.

- Grinding is allowed, double grinding would be considered a no rep.
- 7 second rest at the top of the bars is permissible, if rest exceeds 7 seconds, the competitor would be forced to no longer proceed with their reps.

Pull ups (body weight endurance)

- This lift will be 1 point.
- Full lock out at the bottom of the pull up.
- Chin must be over the bar.
- No leg kip, if leg kipping occurs, it would be considered a no rep.
- 2 second deadstop, competitor must wait for the tap in order to proceed with the next rep.
- Both thumb over or under the bar is permissible.
- Grinding is allowed, double grinding would be considered a no rep.
- 7 second rest at the bottom of the pull up is permissible, if rest exceeds 7 seconds, the competitor would be forced to no longer proceed with their reps.

Weight classes & Judges

- Weight classes will be attributed to 1 rep max and weighted endurance competitions.
- For 1 rep max competitions, there will be men +80KG, -80KG, -73KG, and men 50+ or 45+. There will be an open class for the females.
- For weighted endurance competitions, there will be men +73KG, -73KG, and men 45+. There will be an open class for the females.
- There will be a minimum of three judges for all lifts across all competitions. All judges must be in agreement for rep(s) to be counted (ONLY FOR 1RM). If one judge disagrees with the lift, it will be considered a no rep.
- For Weighted Endurance/Bodyweight 2 or more Judges must agree for it to be a good lift.

Injury

- All competitors must fill out and sign the waiver of the facility in which the competitions will be held and are obligated to comply with the rules outlined in the waiver.
- Pain relieving cream, bandages, KT tape and the like will be permitted, although we would suggest not to compete if the injury visibly persists.
- If the judges deem the injury to be too severe, they are allowed to pull the competitor out of the competition to prevent further injury. The competitor's total score will still be calculated.
- If the competition is held outdoors, all competitors must know the risk of injury and compete at their own discretion.