

A letter to Grand Mother

Hello, Grand Mother; it's shinjoon, the grandson who always called you Grandma and Grandpa "King Father" and "King Mother". Nobody knew that I was going to write this letter, but it turned out this way. It has been such a long time. It's already been 11 years since Father's passing. Time really does fly by. You may think that it is strange that I am writing a letter so suddenly, but I always felt that someday I wanted to express my heart to you. However, I am only writing this letter because I truly love you from the depths of my heart. Some people may think that I am writing this letter because I want money or power and that is why I am writing this letter. However, I can truly say this without feeling any pangs of conscience: that is not true.

I am only writing this letter because I truly love you. I ask you to keep this in mind throughout the entirety of this letter.

Do you remember Grandmother? When I wanted to sleep on the same bed as Grandpa and you but was scared to ask, you embraced me and told me that was okay to sleep with Grandpa and Grandma. I remember being so happy and feeling deeply loved by Grandpa and you. Further after King Father passed away, when I wanted to go to Hawaii so bad that I was crying and screaming on the floor, you granted that wish. Even to this day, I remember the time that you granted that wish. I have many more memories than this, but all of this is to say that I sincerely love you. So even if what I will say to you may be uncomfortable and difficult, when I think of your soul, I cannot but say this: if you keep walking down the road of the only begotten daughter, how will you meet the King father when you go to spirit world? When you meet True Father, True Father will say this, "Depart from me, for I never knew you." As I see my loving grandma who embraced my young self walking the path of destruction, walking the path of destruction, I earnestly plead to see my loving grandma who embraces me, to turn from the trail of severity. Grandmother is this not what real love looks like? If a person is slowly dying because of drug overdose, would you not beseech that person to stop? On the flipside if just let that person slowly disintegrate, isn't it the case that you don't actually love that person? Are we not displaying real love by telling you to turn back from the road of hell? Are not the leaders who abuse you for money and power the real demons? All around you are those who use and steer you closer to hell to fill their own pockets. Seeing that makes my heart rent with pain. Those who betray the Messiah and change the word of God probably think that their money and status will last forever. You demons! As long there is a spirit world, remember that you will end up in front of True Father, the Returning Messiah, who you sold for a meager 30 shekels of silver. It is just a matter of time. Grandmother!! Please remember! My father and my uncle could not but leave that position because they truly love your soul. Do you not know your youngest son well? As he was the youngest son, with many older siblings, he wants to avoid conflict and confrontation whenever possible. Then why does he speak so harshly saying that the only begotten daughter path that you are walking down is the road to hell? If he was the son blind to money, it would have been better to stay under you and applaud everything that you are doing like the other leaders. But unlike the other leaders, your youngest son actually loves you. Isn't it because he truly loves you that he pleaded and begged you not to throw yourself into hell? Isn't it because of love that he could not follow the trail of treachery and rebuke you to turn back?! Those who falsely claim that they are the Messiah and that True Father has an embarrassing history are judged with the righteous fire of God.

Grandmother, as you know in God's history of restoration, idolatry is one of the biggest sins against God. Do you know remember King Father's words that you will be more frightening than Lucifer if you walk down this, I don't know what people told you, but my father and uncle are heart-broken and heart-wrenched to see their own mother walk the path of destruction? They lament with tears of blood. Grandmother, please stop... I sincerely, sincerely, sincerely ask you. Those who deny True Father, the only begotten son and the returning messiah, will never get the blessing of heaven. Rather, the curses of spirit world will come. Isn't that why everything that you announced in 2012 has spiraled into failure? Didn't you say that until 2020, 7 nations will be restored and bowing to the only begotten daughter? It may look like no one is saying anything but heaven is recording your actions. Not only that because of Prime Minister Abe's assassination, aren't the Japanese brothers and sisters who have funded your foundation thus far, is suffering more as a result? Because you couldn't tax the Japanese church, you commanded each Korean family to pay 3000 dollars. However, when they didn't pay that, didn't you have to lower it to 1000 dollars? As even that did not work out after you called a secret meeting of a 1000 Japanese leaders to secretly bring cash, didn't they leak the video to public? Grandmother, you serving True Father for 50 years must have not been easy. However as you know, only those who endure to the end inherit the gift of salvation. Grandmother return to the ones who truly love you. Repent before Heavenly Father. Our Heavenly Father can forgive anyone. No matter how grave the sin is, if we genuinely repent before Christ, He has promised to wash our sins clean. However, as God loves us He has given us the freedom and the opportunity to confess our sins before Him or to hold firmly to his outstretched hand. If you confess before True Father, genuinely and wholeheartedly, he will forgive your sins...

Grandmother, I, Shinjoon Moon, earnestly pray that Grandmother who loved me so deeply, the one who I called King Mother would return to the loving embrace of Heavenly Father and Christ once again.

From your loving grandson,

Shin Joon Moon.
