Exercises 26 (pp. 19-21)

1. A triad is three notes, usually the first, third, and fifth notes of a major or minor scale, sounding together as a chord.

2. Its pitches are the first five partials of the overtone series.
3. The root is the principal note of the triad from whose scale the other pitches are derived.

8.

9. A diminished triad is made of a minor third and diminished fifth above a fundamental (root).

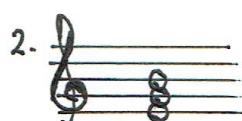

10. The 7th degree.

Transcription Studies

Exercise A:

A musical score for three violins. The top staff, labeled "Violin 1", consists of a treble clef, a C key signature, and a common time signature. It contains six measures of music, starting with a half note followed by a dotted half note and a quarter note. The middle staff, labeled "Violin 2", also has a treble clef, a C key signature, and a common time signature. It contains six measures of music, starting with a dotted half note followed by eighth notes. The bottom staff, labeled "Violin 3", has a treble clef, a C key signature, and a common time signature. It contains six measures of music, starting with a half note followed by a half note and a quarter note.

A musical score for three string instruments: Vln. 1, Vln. 2, and Vln. 3. The score consists of three staves. Vln. 1 starts with a dotted half note followed by eighth-note pairs. Vln. 2 begins with a quarter note followed by eighth-note pairs. Vln. 3 starts with a half note. Measure 13 ends with a fermata over the eighth note of Vln. 1. Measure 14 begins with a sixteenth-note grace note on Vln. 1, followed by eighth-note pairs. Measures 15-16 show a continuation of eighth-note patterns for all three parts.

Exercise B:

A musical score for four violins. The score consists of four staves, each representing a violin part. The violins are tuned in C major. The first measure shows rests for all parts. From the second measure, Violin 2 begins with eighth-note pairs, while Violin 3 and Violin 4 play eighth-note single notes. Violin 1 joins in with eighth-note pairs from the fourth measure. Measures 5-6 show a continuation of this pattern with some rhythmic variations and a key change to G major for Violin 2 in measure 6.

Exercises 35 (pp. 97-98)

1. "Sound piece", as distinct from Sung piece.
2. Four movements: Lively, slow, dance in triple time, lively.
3. The Baroque suite.
4. Sonata-allegro form is a single movement in four sections: exposition, development, recapitulation, and coda.
5. In the exposition, the A theme is in the tonic while the B theme is in a contrasting key, usually the dominant.
6. In a sonata-allegro in the minor mode, the B theme(s) may be in the mediant or submediant.
7. The A theme moves mostly stepwise in long phrases. The B theme moves by skips (arpeggios), is more rhythmically agitated, and uses shorter phrases.
8. The music of the exposition is varied and transformed.
9. The B theme is stated in the tonic in the recapitulation.
10. The instruments take the theme in reverse order.
11. To draw the movement to a close.
12. The coda may use repeated cadences to emphasize the tonic.

Exercises 36 (pp. 100-101)

1. a) Binary form has two contrasting themes stated twice.
b) The second theme appears first in a contrasting key, then in the tonic.
2. a) There is no development section.
b) It is usually in a slow tempo.
c) It emphasizes repetition and ornamentation rather than thematic development.

3. a) contrasting keys (A-theme in B_b, B theme in F).
b) arpeggiated accompaniment to A theme, chords accompaniment to B theme.
c) A theme moves by step, B theme by arpeggiation.
4. a) Piano melody more ornamented in part 2.
b) More rhythmic variety in violin accompaniment in part 2.
c) Violin melody is in B_b minor, not B_b major.
5. B_b minor (i)
6. The recapitulation of the B theme.
7. a) The B theme is more ornamented in part 2.
b) It is stated in B_b major in part 2, F major in part 1.
8. The A theme of the first movement.
9. The trill-like figure just before the recapitulation of the first movement.

Exercises 37 (pp. 103-104)

1. Minuet and Trio
2. Dance-like
3. 3/4 time
4. Ternary form.
5. Joke
6. It does not differ.
7. The trio has fewer voices (3 instead of 5). Also,
