

Chapter of VTCI Publication of the LONG ISLAND THUNDERBIRD CLUB Silver Award 202 JANUARY 2026

Robert Fligel's 2004 Retro Thunderbird

Growing up in Charlotte North Carolina in the '50s and '60s, having a Thunderbird was of omigod significance. I moved to New York in the 1970s and never saw a retro Thunderbird until a car show in New Rochelle, NY in September 2025. I was immediately smitten resulting in research leading to purchase of this car. Happy motoring to all.

Enduring Care Update

Enduring Care Update: Charlie Armstrong informs me that they raised $4,500 and filled two pickups with donations. Great news!

Show Me the Money

2026 Club Dues is Due Now: Just a friendly reminder that your dues for 2026 are due now. Please make your check payable to Long Island Thunderbird Club and mail it to yours truly at: Elliott Weiner at 87 Ruth Street Smithtown N.Y, 11787

Front Cover

Front Cover for January: Is New member Robert Fligel and his 2004 Retro Bird.

Interesting story again, and you know I always repeat myself. While trolling through Facebook I ran across Robert and his tire question. Everything else is history.

2026 Thunderbird Show Flyer

2026 Thunderbird Show on Sunday November 15th at the Vanderbilt Museum in Centerport: On Page #9 of this issue of BT you will find our first pass of our show flyer for 2026. Please keep in mind it's only the first pass and things may change as we get closer to November. First off, a couple of items; the cost of $30 may change because we have to kick back X amount of bucks to the museum for the use of their venue. Keep in mind this is a pre-register event with a maximum of only fifty Thunderbirds allowed.

No day of show money. Next, is the date of November 15th. That could change but no matter, the date the show will be is in November. As we get closer to the show with each month going forward, I will have more info. Please do not send me any money now.

Act II

Saturday November 27th. Thanksgiving Parade in Patchogue: For the second or third year in a row I was invited to participate in Thanksgiving Parade in Patchogue. I arrived at Dennis Benfante's house a little before 4 PM because I asked him a few days earlier if he would put air in my tires. I can hardly walk or bend down and try to get back up. We arrived at the staging area in town a little before 5 PM. Said hello to some of the guys and gals from TONY and then sat in my car till about 6:30 which was start your engines time. This parade has to be one of the longest on the Island with thousands of spectators in attendance. Caught a brake tonight with the weather, no wind to speak of and the cold was bearable. Between Big Bird and TONY we had eight vehicles with seven being Thunderbirds and one Mustang. Overall no injuries and was home by nine. Plus, not one but two porta poties. Hal a Freaking Luya.....

Parade Footnote: Because we were parked on a very dark street with no real lighting there are no pictures from this event.

L I Club Council Meeting Sunday January 11th

LI Club Council Meeting Sundy January 11th: I cover this event every year and try to get all up to speed to what they are trying to accomplish. Next year it's Sunday January 11th in Williston Park at the American legion Hall. The fee to participate is $30.00 and I already cut a check and it's in the mail. This is probably my last Council Meeting because my tenure as President will end December of 2026. I'm sure it's the same old Rederick but it will give us visibility for our show and in 2027 it will be up to The "Count" if he wants to continue. I covered this last year in my January message and it does not pay to beat a dead horse. In February I will bring all up to speed on what when and where there were any injuries.

2026 CLUB DUES IS DUE NOW

...any drone sittings and, you're Welcome.....

A message from John Bianco, Co-President

We want to know what you would like to see from the LITC in 2026. Seriously, what club activities, events, or venues should we consider for club gatherings? Are you tired of meetings at the same ol' diner? Are the meeting locations not convenient; should we mix up the locations? Should meetings not focus on food? How about a night out bowling or mini-golf? Come on folks, we want ideas that are "G" or "PG" rated. It's our club, let's have some fun! Let us know by emailing jake8687@verizon.net Just click the links for the email.biggbird1900@aol.com

Cold weather is setting in and hopefully your Bird is warm under cover. After the holidays have passed and the days begin to ever so slowly get longer, some of us may catch up on watching some movies. Think about all the great car movies there have been: "Bullitt", "The French Connection", "The Italian Job", "Mad Max", "The Blues Brothers", "Baby Driver", "The Seven-Ups", etc.. All these had some cool cars and great car chases of course. But what about some TV shows or car movies featuring the legendary Ford Thunderbird?

"Vega$", the TV series, featured car hero was the '57 Thunderbird driven by Dan Tanna played by Robert Urich. And movies: "Thelma and Louise" in their '66, "The Outsiders" with a '66, "Goldfinger" with a '64, "Die Another Day" with an '02. For me one of the more renowned appearances by a Thunderbird has to be the '56 white Thunderbird in "American Graffiti" driven by that mysterious blonde who captured the heart of the character Curt Henderson played by Richard Dreyfus. Perhaps I'm a bit biased, but of all the cars and rods in that movie, that white '56 stayed with me because Curt was the underdog hero in the movie. I'm sure we all were cheering for Curt to hook up with the blonde. Surely, the Wolfman would make it happen for Curt! With help from the Wolfman, Curt finally speaks to her over the phone. Even though Curt was flying off to college the next morning, he spotted the blonde's Thunderbird driving below as his plane was taking off. Alas! There's hope for Curt! And who was that young blonde lovely driving the white Thunderbird? None other than Suzzane Somers! So, grab a single malt and get a Netflix or other streaming subscription and start watching.

Ciao!
The Count
