

TARA PEDROSA

LEAD HAIR ARTIST

TARA'S WORK

PROFILE

Tara's personality is infectious. Always connecting with her clients, she makes people feel confident within the realm of her artistry. She will make you laugh as well as teach you how to be resourceful in your hair journey emphasizing correct techniques and product knowledge to increase longevity with your own hair and consult on a personalized hair-care routine.

Graduating in 1992, her 30 year professional span and impressive 25+ year client retention attests to the talent and expertise in her craft.

Mastering in color theory including color correction she has worked as an educator with GOLDWELL INC. the top professional hair color brand in the world.

Tara is constantly researching new techniques and implementing them to always be ahead of the cultural trend curve that encompasses every beauty, style and fashion industry.

She is most complimented on listening to her client's needs. She feels consultation and communication is key to a successful and memorable relationship.

Storming through every wedding season with talent and candor, her strengths will make you feel comfortable in a sometimes stressful; but always joyous environment.

