It outlines the Church's beliefs, governance, operation, practices, principles, and articles; as well as the responsibilities and rights of those in covenant fellowship with the Church.

The following Bylaws prescribe the management of the Church's affairs; the descriptions and roles of its Board of Directors and other officers; the Christian beliefs, practices, and principles it upholds; and the rights and duties of those in covenant fellowship with reference to the internal government of the Church.

BYLAWS OF BEULAH BAPTIST CHURCH, OF DEANWOOD HEIGHTS, D.C.
(A District of Columbia Nonprofit Corporation)

PREAMBLE

WHEREAS, God has in these last days founded His Church upon Christ Jesus (Matthew 16:18; Hebrews 1:1-4; Ephesians 1:22-23, 5:23; Colossians 1:18), built it through His people (Ephesians 4:11-13), gave it power and authority (Ephesians 2:1-10), and unified it with internal structure (Acts 20:17-28; 1 Timothy 3:1-16; 1 Peter 5:1-5; Acts 6:1-6) and the Holy Ghost as the guide (John 14:26; Acts 4:31-32), that we, as the body of Christ, might present His Gospel by assisting in the implementation of the vision for the local church with the following constitution and bylaws of the church.

ARTICLE III CHURCH COVENANT

We do in the presence of Almighty God, the angels, and this assembly enter into covenant with one another, as we are here to reconfirm our faith in God through Christ and to reconfirm the works that follow our faith for the Bible says: "faith without works is dead" (James 2:26b).

A. We believe, upon the confession of our faith, we were baptized in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit uniting us into one faith. Therefore, our words and deeds exemplify the principles of the Word of God to ensure that we do not bring reproach upon God or the body of Christ.

B. We believe that the Holy Bible was written by divinely inspired men with God as the Author. We believe that it was written without error and with salvation for its end. Therefore, we hold the Holy Bible to be the absolute truth and the final authority in all things.

C. We believe in the Triune God: God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit. We further believe that God the Father is the supreme Ruler and Creator of all things. We believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God who is the only way to salvation.

D. We believe that the Holy Spirit serves as our seal until the day of Redemption. Therefore, we worship and embrace the Trinity as God in three persons.

E. We believe that as a local church we are united in Christian love for the expressed purpose of doing "it" God's way. Therefore, we keep our hearts focused on God, endeavoring to learn His perfect will.

F. We believe, by following the vision of our Pastor, as he follows the way of God, that this church enhances its spirituality, prosperity, holiness, and high level of worship. Therefore, we willfully submit ourselves under the direction of the Man of God, as he submits himself under the direction of God.

G. We believe that it is our responsibility and duty to contribute faithfully and regularly to our storehouse (Beulah), because we are Malachi believers. Therefore, we bring our tithe which is 10% of our gross income along with a reasonable portion of our time and talents.

H. We also believe that over and above our tithes, we bring our offerings for the growth of the church, for the expansion of God's kingdom and for meeting the needs of our outreach ministries. Therefore, as joyful stewards, we give back to God what He has entrusted to us.

I. We believe that as we look beyond the walls of this Church, we dedicate our time and resources to increase, revitalize, and meet the needs of the community. Therefore, through our community outreach ministries, we have committed ourselves to clothing, feeding, educating, and enhancing the quality of life of our neighbors.

J. We believe that all relationships are to be kept undefiled by abstaining from all sexual immorality. We also believe as Scripture teaches that marriage is a covenant solely between a man and a woman. Therefore, we will reverence all of our relationships and keep our marriages holy, as our bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit.

ARTICLE IV STATEMENT OF FUNDAMENTAL BELIEFS

Beulah embraces the following statements concerning the beliefs of the Church. "But Speak thou the things which become sound doctrine" (Titus 2:1). Beulah adopts the Holy Bible as the rule in the Church's faith, practice, and methods of operation. This Statement of Fundamental Beliefs is intended simply as a basis of fellowship among us (i.e. that we all speak the same thing). No claim is made that it is comprehensive of all Biblical truth, only that it covers our needs as to these fundamental doctrines. We do not presume to say the phraseology employed in this Statement of Fundamental Beliefs is inspired or that it is the final word on Biblical truth. However, we are persuaded it is proper and consistent with the Holy Scriptures to set forth in order a declaration of those things, which are most surely believed among us.

Section 1

The Scriptures

We believe that the Holy Bible was written by men divinely inspired, and is a perfect treasure of heavenly instruction; that it has God for its author, salvation for its end, and truth without any mixture of error for its matter; that it reveals the principles by which God will judge us, and therefore is, and shall remain to the end of the world, the true center of Christian union, and the supreme standard by which all human conduct, creeds, and opinions shall be tried.

Section 2

The True God

We believe the Scriptures teach that there is one, and only one, living and true God, an infinite, intelligent Spirit, whose name is Jehovah, the Maker and Supreme Ruler of heaven and earth; inexpressibly glorious in holiness, and worthy of all possible honor, confidence and love; that in the unity of the Godhead there are three persons, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost; equal in every divine perfection, and executing distinct but harmonious offices in the great work of redemption.

Section 3

The Fall of Man

We believe that the Scriptures teach that Man was created in holiness, under the law of his Maker; but by voluntary transgression fell from the holy and happy state; in consequence of which all mankind are sinners, not by constraint but choice; being by nature utterly void of that holiness required by the law of God, positively inclined to evil; and therefore under just condemnation to eternal ruin, without defense or excuse.

Section 4

The Way of Salvation

We believe that the Scriptures teach that the salvation of sinners is wholly of grace; through the mediatorial offices of the Son of God; who by the appointment of the Father, freely took upon him our nature, yet without sin; honored the divine law by his personal obedience, and by his death made a full atonement for our sins; that having risen from the dead, he is now enthroned in heaven; and uniting in his wonderful person the tenderest sympathies with divine perfections, he is in every way qualified to be a suitable, a compassionate, and an all-sufficient Saviour.

Section 5

Justification

We believe the Scriptures teach that the great Gospel blessing which Christ secures to such as believe in him is justification; that justification includes the pardon of sin, and the promise of eternal life on principles of righteousness; that it is bestowed, not in consideration of any works of righteousness which we have done, but solely through faith in the Redeemer's blood; by virtue of which faith his perfect righteousness is freely imputed to us of God; that it brings us into a state of most blessed peace and favor with God, and secures every other blessing needful for time and eternity.

Section 6

The Freeness of Salvation

We believe that the Scriptures teach that the blessings of salvation are made free to all by the Gospel; that it is the immediate duty of all to accept them by cordial, penitent and obedient faith; and that nothing prevents the salvation of the greatest sinner on earth, but his own determined depravity and voluntary rejection of the Gospel; which rejection involves him in an aggravated condemnation.

Section 7

Regeneration

We believe that the Scriptures teach that in order to be saved, sinners must be regenerated, or born again; that regeneration consists in giving a holy disposition to the mind that it is effected in a manner above our comprehension by the power of the Holy Spirit in connection with divine truth, so as to secure our voluntary obedience to the Gospel; and that its proper evidence appears in the holy fruits of repentance and faith, and newness of life.

Section 8

Repentance and Faith

We believe the Scriptures teach that repentance and faith are sacred duties, and also inseparable graces, wrought in our souls by the regenerating Spirit of God; whereby being deeply convinced of our guilt, danger and helplessness and of the way of salvation by Christ, we turn to God with unfeigned contrition, confession and supplication for mercy; at the same time heartily receiving the Lord Jesus Christ as our prophet, priest and king, and relying on him alone as the only and all-sufficient Saviour.

Section 9

God's Purpose of Grace

We believe the Scriptures teach that election is the eternal purpose of God, according to which he graciously regenerates, sanctifies and saves sinners; that being perfectly consistent with the free agency of man, it comprehends all the means in connection with the end; that is a most glorious display of God's sovereign goodness, being infinitely free, wise, holy and unchangeable, that it utterly excludes boasting and promotes humility, love, prayer, praise, trust in God, and active imitation of his free mercy; that it encourages the use of means in the highest degree; that it may be ascertained by its effects in all who truly believe the Gospel; that it is the foundation of Christian assurance; and that to ascertain it with regard to ourselves demands and deserves the utmost diligence.

Section 10

Sanctification

We believe the Scriptures teach that Sanctification is the process by which, according to the will of God, we are made partakers of his holiness; that it is a progressive work; that it is begun in regeneration; and that it is carried on in the hearts of believers by the presence and power of the Holy Spirit, the Healer and Comforter, in the continual use of the appointed means especially the word of God, self-examination, self-denial, watchfulness, and prayer.

Section 11

Perseverance of Saints

We believe the Scriptures teach that such only are real believers as endure to the end; that their persevering attachment to Christ is the grand mark which distinguishes them from superficial professors; that a special Providence watches over their welfare; and they are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.

Section 12

The Law and Gospel

We believe the Scriptures teach that the Law of God is the eternal and unchangeable rule of his moral government; that it is holy, just and good; and that the inability which the Scriptures ascribe to fallen men to fulfill its precepts, arise entirely from their love of sin; to deliver them from which, and to restore them through a Mediator to unfeigned obedience to the holy Law, is one great end of the Gospel, and of the means of Grace connected with the establishment of the visible church.

Section 13

A Gospel Church

We believe the Scriptures teach that a visible church of Christ is a congregation of baptized believers, associated by covenant in the faith and fellowship of the Gospel; observing the ordinances of Christ; governed by his laws; and exercising the gifts, rights, and privileges invested in them by His Word; that its only scriptural officers are Bishops or Pastors, and Deacons whose qualifications, claims and duties are defined in the Epistles to Timothy and Titus.

Section 14

The Christian Sabbath

We believe the Scriptures teach that the first day of the week is the Lord's Day, or Christian Sabbath, and is to be kept sacred to religious purposes, by abstaining from all secular labor and sinful recreations, by the devout observances of all means of grace, both private and public, and by preparation for the rest that remain for the people of God.

Section 15

Baptism and the Lord's Supper

We believe the Scriptures teach that Christian baptism is the immersion in water of a believer, into the name of the Father, and Son, and Holy Ghost; to show forth in a solemn and beautiful emblem, our faith in the crucified, buried, and risen Saviour, with its effect, in our death to sin and resurrection to a new life; that it is prerequisite to the privileges of a church relation; and to the Lord's Supper, in which the members of the church, by the sacred use of bread and wine, are to commemorate together the dying love of Christ; preceded always by solemn self-examination.

Section 16

Civil Government

We believe the Scriptures teach that civil government is of divine appointment, for the interest and good order of human society; and that magistrates are to be prayed for, conscientiously honored and obeyed; except only in things opposed to the will of our Lord Jesus Christ who is the only Lord of the conscience, and the Prince of the Kings of the earth.

Section 17

Righteous and Wicked

We believe the Scriptures teach that there is a radical and essential difference between the righteous and the wicked; that such only as through faith are justified in the name of the Lord

Jesus, and sanctified by the Spirit of our God, are truly righteous in his esteem; while all such as continue in impenitence and unbelief are in his sight wicked, and under the curse, and this distinction holds among men both in and after death.

Section 18

Blessed Hope

We believe Jesus is coming again to gather all His Saints to Heaven before the Great Tribulation (rapture).

Section 19

The Great Tribulation

We believe that the Scriptures teach that after Jesus raptures the church, there will be a seven year period of tribulation. This period is called the Great Tribulation.

Section 20

The Millennial Reign of Jesus

We believe that our Lord Jesus Christ with His Saints will return from Heaven to rule and reign for one thousand years on the earth as the Scriptures promised.

Section 21

The World to Come

We believe that the Scriptures teach that the end of the world is approaching; that at the last day, Christ will descend from heaven, and raise the dead from the grave for final retribution; that a solemn separation will then take place; that the wicked will be adjudged to endless punishment, and the righteous to endless joy; and that this judgment will fix forever the final state of men in heaven or hell, on principles of righteousness.

Section 22

The Lake of Fire

We believe those who have not accepted the redemptive work of Jesus Christ will suffer eternal separation from the Godhead. The devil and his angels, the beast and the false prophet, and anyone whose name was not found written in the book of life, shall be consigned to everlasting punishment in the lake of fire which burns with brimstone. This is the second death, the lake of fire.

ARTICLE V ORDINANCES AND PRACTICES

We hold that the following ordinances and practices are in harmony with the Scriptures and are to be observed by the Church.

Section 1

Baptism

Baptism by immersion shall be observed as commanded in the Scripture by all who have repented of their sins and have believed on the Lord Jesus Christ to the saving of their souls and who give clear evidence of their salvation. Those who have partaken of Christ by faith in His shed blood are commanded to be water baptized by immersion into Christ. In this act of faith we participate in Christ's burial and resurrection and receive a circumcision of the heart (Romans 6).

Section 2

The Lord's Supper

The Lord's Supper is a memorial of the covenant made with God through the blood of Christ (Matthew 26:26-29; 1 Corinthians 11:23-28). It is a continuation of the Passover Feast, which God commanded His covenant people to observe. Those who have made covenant with God through the blood of Christ and have been water baptized are instructed to participate. Beulah participates in the Lord's Supper as a body or family with each member in fellowship adding to the blessedness of the experience.

Section 3

Children's Dedication

The dedication of children is the presentation of a child to God, and therefore establishes a covenant between God and parents. God promises blessings and protection to the child whose parents are faithful to rear him/her in the services of the Lord. Such a child is made holy and is part of the covenant family of God by the faith of his/her parents until he/she reaches the age of accountability, whereupon he/she becomes responsible as an individual before God and is commanded to repent (Deuteronomy 6:4-7; Psalms 127:3; 1 Samuel 1).

Section 4

Anointing With Oil

Anointing oil is administered for healing and if there have been sins committed against Christ or His Body they are to be confessed. The anointing oil is then administered for both physical and spiritual restoration with the laying on of hands when required (Leviticus 8:12; Mark 6:13; James 5:14).

Section 5

Marriage

"Boaz took Ruth and she became his wife...", "...For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife...", Each man should have his own wife, and each woman should have her own husband.", "Finally the time came for him to marry her." It is our sincere belief that marriage, as ordained by God, is defined as being between one man and one woman. No other will be performed or condoned. (Jeremiah 29:6; Romans 7:2; 1 Corinthians 7:2; Genesis 21:21; Genesis 29:21; 1 Corinthians 7:36, 39; Genesis 2:23-24; Ephesians 5:22-23, 25, 28-29, 31, 33)

Marriage is a covenant made between "a" man, "a" woman, and God (Genesis 2:22-24). The marriage covenant requires the married parties to be faithful, loving and helpful to each other as long as they both shall live (Mark 10:6-9). Christians are not to marry unbelievers, and are not to be joined together until after counseling with the Pastor (or his designee) concerning what God requires of them in order to be joined in Christian marriage (2 Corinthians 6:14-18).

Section 6

Funeral

A Christian funeral is a ceremony for celebrating and remembering the life of a person who has died in the Lord. It should be very joyous and upbeat. The Bible teaches "to be absent from the body means to be present with the Lord"; "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord"; and, we do not have to be sorrowful as those with no hope — Jesus lives (2 Corinthians 5:8; Revelations 14:13; 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18).

ARTICLE VI

CHRISTIAN LIFE; SCRIPTURAL CONDUCT

Section 1

Personal Ethics

"I can do anything I want to if Christ has not said no, but some of these things aren't good for me. Even if I am allowed to do them, I'll refuse to if I think they might get such a grip on me that I can't easily stop when I want to" (1 Cor. 6:12 LB). "We can always 'prove' that we are right, but is the Lord convinced?" (Proverbs 16:2 LB) "And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which labor among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you" (I Thessalonians 5:12).

Section 2

Obedience to Law

"Obey the government, for God is the one who has put it there. There is no government anywhere that God has not placed in power. So those who refuse to obey the laws of the land are refusing to obey God, and punishment will follow" (Romans 13:1-2 LB). "Obey the laws, then, for two reasons: first, to keep from being punished, and second, just because you know you should. Pay your taxes too, for these same two reasons. For government workers need to be paid so that they can keep on doing God's work, serving you.

Pay everyone whatever he ought to have; pay your taxes and import duties gladly, obey those over you, and give honor and respect to all those to whom it is due. Pay all your debts except the debt of love for others - never finish paying that! For if you love them, you will be obeying all of God's laws, fulfilling all his requirements. Another reason for right living in this: you know how late it is; time is running out. Wake up, for the coming of the Lord is nearer now than when we first believed" (Romans 13:5-8, 11 LB).

Section 3

Family; Household

"Honor your father and mother, that you may have a long, good life in the land the Lord your God will give you" (Exodus 20:12). "For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?" (I Timothy 3:5) "Their wives must be thoughtful, not heavy drinkers, not gossipers, but faithful in everything they do" (I Timothy 3:11 LB). "The men you choose must be well thought of for their good lives; they must have only one wife and their children must love the Lord and not have a reputation for being wild or disobedient to their parents. These elders must be men of blameless lives because they are God's ministers. They must not be proud or impatient; they must not be drunkards or fighters or greedy for money" (Titus 1:6-7 LB). "That the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience. That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children" (Titus 2:2-4). "You wives must submit to your husbands' leadership in the same way you submit to the Lord. For a husband is in charge of his wife in the same way Christ is in charge of his body the Church. (He gave his very life to take care of it and be its Savior!) So you wives must willingly obey your husbands in everything, just as the Church obeys Christ. And you husbands, how the same kind of love to your wives as Christ showed to the Church when he died for her, to make her holy and clean, washed by baptism and God's Word: so that he could give her to himself as a glorious Church without a single spot or wrinkle or any other blemish, being holy and without a single fault. That is how husbands should treat their wives, loving them as parts of themselves. For since a man and his wife are now one, a man is really doing himself a favor and loving himself when he loves his wife. No one hates his own body but lovingly cares for it, just as Christ cares for his body the Church, of which we are parts. (That the husband and wife are one body is proved by the Scripture which says, "A Man must leave his father and mother when he marries, so the two shall be one.") So again, I say, a man must love his wife as a part of himself: and the wife must see to it that she deeply respects her husband - obeying, praising and honoring him. Children, obey your parents; this is the right thing to do because God has placed them in authority over you. Honor your father and mother. This is the first of God's Ten Commandments that ends with a promise. And this is the promise: that if you honor your father and mother, yours will be a long life, full of blessing. And now a word to you parents. Don't keep on scolding and nagging your children, making them angry and resentful. Rather bring them up with the loving discipline the Lord himself approves, with suggestions and godly advice" (Ephesians 5:22-31, 33-6:4 LB).

Section 4

Control

"...For a man is a slave to whatever controls him" (II Peter 2:19 LB). "Even if we believe that it makes no difference to the Lord whether we do these things, still we cannot just go ahead and do them to please ourselves; for we must bear the burden of being considerate of the doubts and fears of others - of those who feel these things are wrong. Let's please the other fellow, not ourselves, and do what is for his good and thus build him up in the Lord" (Romans 15:2-3 LB).

Section 5

Adultery; Immorality

"Thou shalt not commit adultery" (Ex. 20:14). "...try hard to live without sinning; and be at peace with everyone so that he will be pleased with you when he returns" (II Peter 2:14 LB). "You shall not commit adultery. But I say: Anyone who even looks at a woman with lust in his eye has already committed adultery with her in his heart" (Matthew 5:27-28 LB). "...Don't fool yourselves. Those who live immoral lives, who are idol worshipers, adulterers or homosexuals will have no share in his Kingdom ..." (I Cor. 6:9 LB). "But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat" (I Cor. 5:11 LB).

Section 6

Drunkness; Drugs

"This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious and won't obey; he is a worthless drunkard. Then the men of the city shall stone him to death. In this way you shall put away this evil from among you, and all the young men will hear about what happened and will be afraid" (Deuteronomy 21:20-21 LB). "...envy, murder, drunkenness, wild parties, and all that sort of thing. Let me tell you again as I have before, that anyone living that sort of life will not inherit the Kingdom of God" (Galatians 5:21 LB). "Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the Kingdom of God" (I Cor. 6:10 LB). "Don't drink too much wine, for many evils lie along that path; be filled instead with the Holy Spirit, and controlled by Him" (Ephesians 5:18 LB). "For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty; and drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags" (Proverbs 23:21).

Section 7

Smoking

"Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy, for the temple of God is holy, which temple are ye" (I Cor. 3:16-17). "Haven't you yet learned that your body is the home of the Holy Spirit God gave you, and that He lives within you? Your body does not belong to you. For God has bought you with a great price. So use every part of your body to give glory back to God, because He owns it" (I Cor. 6:19).

Section 8

Homosexuality

"You shall not lie with a man as with a woman; it is an abomination" (Leviticus 18:22). "...God let go of them and let them do all these evil things, so that even their women turned against God's natural plan for them and indulged in sex sin with each other. And the men, instead of having a normal sex relationship with women, burned with lust for each other, men doing shameful things with other men and, as a result, getting paid within their own souls with the penalty they so richly deserved. So it was that when they have God up and would not even acknowledge him, God gave them up to doing everything their evil minds could think of. Their lives became full of every kind of wickedness and sin" (Romans 1:26-29). "Don't you know that those doing such things have no share in the Kingdom of God? Don't fool yourselves. Those who live immoral lives, who are idol worshippers, adulterers or homosexuals will have no share in his Kingdom..." (I Cor. 6:9-10).

ARTICLE VII AFFILIATION

While maintaining its inherent rights to sovereignty in the conduct of its own affairs, Beulah shall seek to maintain voluntarily cooperative fellowship with other ministries, fellowships, and groups that are deemed mutually benevolent and beneficial to the vision and purpose of the Church.

ARTICLE VIII PREROGATIVES

Section 1

The Church shall have the right to govern itself according to the standards of the New Testament Scriptures, "...endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace... till we all come in the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ" (Ephesians 4:13).

Section 2

Beulah shall implement its New Testament Christianity commissioned by the further prerogatives:

- a. To provide a ministry dedicated to the furthering of the Kingdom of God in obedience to the teachings of the Lord Jesus Christ by preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ both in the United States and abroad throughout the world as the Lord leads.
- b. To establish and maintain such departments, institutions and services for the propagation of the Gospel and its work embraced by the purposes of the Church.
- c. To examine candidates for the ministry, and to license and ordain those who shall have been approved for the Christian ministry by the Pastor according to standards set forth by the New Testament as accepted by the Church.
- d. To examine candidates and appoint missionaries and to endorse and support missionary programs according to standards set forth by the New Testament.
- e. To establish ministries, ministry schools, missions, Christian camps, Christian centers, radio and television programs and stations, both at home and abroad, and Christian academic institutions, to standards set forth by the New Testament.
- f. To designate its own officers, appoint committees, to arrange for its own meetings, and to govern itself in accordance with these bylaws.
- g. To uncompromisingly minister the Word of God to the faithful.
- h. To conduct a local ministry by the direction of the Lord Jesus Christ and under the leadership of the Holy Spirit in accordance with all the provisions as set forth in the Holy Bible.
- i. The Pastor or his designee of the Church shall have the right to determine who may attend ministry meetings and functions, because this ministry is not a public institution and its property is not a public place (Matthew 16:18; Colossians 1:12-18; Acts 5:29).
- j. The Church maintains that it has a divine mandate to practice its religion as dictated by God. Scripture states explicitly that Jesus Christ is the head of the church. In Christ all ethnic, social and cultural distinctions blend together harmoniously to enrich His love in the church. We therefore will extend our Christian love to 'whosoever will'. Therefore, we categorically reject any and all claims by the state (civil government) to headship or sovereignty over the Church. When earthly governments overstep their boundaries by seeking to restrict, hamper, or limit the Church's obedience to Christ, we must and will obey God rather than man (Acts 5:29).

k. Scripture teaches that all tithes and offerings "belong to the Lord" and are "holy to the Lord". Therefore, the Church is tax immune. Attempts by civil government to tax the Church or its property, or tax the gifts of God's people to God or to claim the right to grant a revocable tax exemption are attempts by the state to usurp the sovereignty of Christ. The civil government that seeks to tax the Church or gifts to the Church is literally and specifically robbing that which has been rendered unto God. Such taxation violates the parameter of the authority of civil government as outlined in Scripture (Malachi 3:8-10) (Nehemiah 13:11).

Section 3

In connection therewith, or incidental thereto, the Church shall have the right to purchase or acquire gifts, bequest or otherwise, either directly or as trustees, and to own, hold in trust, use, sell, convey, mortgage, lease or otherwise dispose of any real estate or chattels as may be necessary for the furtherance of its purposes; all in accordance with the bylaws as the same may be hereafter modified or amended.

Section 4

The vision of Beulah is encompassed in the following:

a. To provide a ministry dedicated to the furthering of the Kingdom of God in obedience to the teachings of the Lord Jesus Christ both in the United States and abroad throughout the world

b. To send forth home and foreign missionaries to the spreading of the Gospel and in extending the Gospel of God throughout the world.

c. To print, publish, distribute and sell books, magazines and other literature in connection with the purposes of the Church; to sell, record and reproduce tapes, compact disks, and radio and television programs in connection with the purposes of the Church. To produce and distribute radio and television programs.

d. To establish, maintain and conduct seminars for the instruction of children and adults for religious instruction.

ARTICLE IX MEMBERSHIP/FELLOWSHIP

Beulah is a sovereign and Bible-based body under the leadership of Jesus Christ. The Membership/Fellowship retains unto itself the right of self government as provided herein.

Beulah is committed to the concept of "Covenant Fellowship", that any individual who accepts the inspiration of the Scriptures in theory and in practice, and is received by baptism, by letter, by Christian experience or by reinstatement, subject in each case to successfully completing new members classes and receiving the hand of fellowship is then considered in covenant fellowship with the Body of Christ at Beulah.

Membership/Fellowship in the Body of Christ is achieved by means of the new birth. One of the most important things any believer can do is get rooted and grounded in a local church where the Word of God is taught, believed and acted upon (Hebrews 10:25).

Membership/Fellowship will cause one to be able to draw on all the resources of the ministry without reservation. It will also provide one with an opportunity to give as well as receive. All rights and privileges of active membership/fellowship status will be contingent on consistent giving by new or existing membership. There are many areas of ministry where one can use the talents and abilities the Lord has given him/her. This can be accomplished as all are joined together in unity and love to accomplish God's will.

Section 1

Qualification for Membership/Fellowship
