

Construction Manager

Job Summary

A McQueen Construction Manager oversees residential construction projects in conjunction with the production team. Primarily an on-site management role, CM's ensure that McQueen field crew and subcontractors are performing quality work that keeps jobs on time and within budget. These individuals are experienced team leaders that possess both administrative and people skills. CM's play a crucial role in delivering dream homes to MBC clients by seeing projects to completion.

Responsibilities

- Oversee daily management of schedule and quality control for assigned projects
- Give clear and concise directions to field team and subcontractors per the contract scope
- Ensure that assigned projects remain within set budget and schedule metrics
- Coach and develop McQueen field team and supervisors
- Obtain vendor bids in conjunction with Project Manager
- Coordinate necessary building material order/delivery with PM to maintain critical path
- Utilize organization skills to keep track of numerous project details
- Maintain productive and professional relationships with clientele, resolve client disputes/concerns
- Complete all other duties as assigned

Qualifications

- Proficiency in construction management software
- 5+ years of relevant experience
- Excellent communication, professional appearance, and teamwork skills
- Ability to read and interpret schematics and construction plans effectively
- Capability to manage multiple projects simultaneously while maintaining attention to detail

We offer a comprehensive, industry-leading benefits package including health/dental/vision insurance, 401k with company match, disability and life insurance, vehicle allowance, PTO, and paid holidays