

The objective is to discuss how changes in Technology, Attacker Sophistication, tools and the business environment are changing the way the organizations need to prepare and react to Cyber Security Challenges to protect their organizations.